The death occurred yesterday morning at 371 Princess avenue of Mr.
Thomas Alway Hall. He was 81 years of age, and was born in Somersetshire, England. He came to this country in 1845 and settled in London, where he has ever since resided. He followed the occupation of a bridge builder for some years and then became a coal dealer of Bathurst street.
For the past twenty-five or thirty years he has lived in retirement. He visited Australia once, but beyond an occasional trip deceased has been a Londoner, and for some years has lived with his daughter, Mrs. A. Edwards, Princess avenue. He is survived by his son Charles, of 405 Rectory street, and by four brothers and one sister. His wife, Mrs. Hall, George, of this city, and Robert, of California, and Mrs. Ann Edwards.
He was a member of St. George's Society.

Mrs. Jane Farncomb, of this city, died on Wednesday at the family residence, 155 Central avenue. Deceased was 74 years of age and was a native of England. She came to this country about forty years ago and for a long time lived in London Township, at Arva. After the demise of her husband, about ten years ago, she came to the city, and has resided here since that time. She was not ill gather unexpected, as deceased had been ill for several months. She was well known and the family will have the sympathy of many friends. There remain a family of four daughters and three sons—Mrs. Canon Farncomb, of Toronto; Winifred, Caroline and Francis, at home; Harry, of Arva; Ernest, civil engineer in the N.-W. T., and Mr. F. W. Farncomb, of this city.

Two carloads of rails for the Southwestern Company's trunk line electric railway, between Lambeth and this city, have arrived here over the M.

C. R. Twenty more cars are at Courtright, awaiting shipment. The Company are rushing the rails forward with the greatest possible speed.

Mr. Welch, the secretary of the surveyors are at present on the ground over which the railway will extend, and grading is expected to be started on Monday. The men doing the work at Cathcart street, working to the Base Line, west to the Wharn-cliffe Road, following the line of the road, are expected to be completed within one month or six weeks.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Workman, in the evening of last night. The bride Maggie, was united in marriage to Mr.

J. Reid, of this city. Only the most intimate friends of the bride and groom, J. B. Murphy, of Dundas street, who acted as best man, and Mr. J. H. Montgomery, of the law firm of Field & Hinchman, Detroit, were yesterday looking over certain records and statutes, in the interests of the London, Aylmer and Port Burwell Electric Car Company. Mr.

Montgomery says that the company intends immediately to start building the road, and they will work both ways from Aylmer.

During the month of October the fire brigade answered 112 calls, of which three were chimney fires, four false alarms and four from other causes. The most serious blazes were at Gorman & Eckert's and at a cottage on the Wellington Road, a couple of weeks ago. Three of the four false alarms were sent in from the northern district.

It is not often in the history of a parish church that two such events as the commemoration of the ninth anniversary of its opening is followed, as with St. James' Church, Henshall, by the visit of the Bishop of Huron to consecrate the building as free from doubt. This he will do to-morrow.

The letter carriers of this city are being supplied with a new helmet for fall and spring wear. The helmet is close-fitting, is of a dark blue color, and has a handsome appearance.
Some of the carriers who have already received these helmets claim they are uncomfortable.

Mr. R. C. Clute, K. C. of Toronto, who has been appointed to conduct the Crown's case in the trial of Gerald Sifton here next week, arrived in the city last night for the purpose of going over the case with Crown Attorney Magee. Mr. Clute is the third Crown counsel to be engaged on this famous case.

The police had a quiet night for Hallowe'en. No reports of mischievous pranks reached the central station up to midnight.

The harvest home services at the Colborne street church to-morrow will be of special interest. On Tuesday night a harvest home supper will be held.

Local Macabees are requested, owing to the serious illness of Sir Knight J. H. Dickson, Record Keeper of Tent No. 1, to pay their dues promptly to the persons authorized.

Mr. J. G. Jones, chief clerk at the G. T. R., who has received a promotion to Portland, Maine, left for that place last night. Mr. M. Cord will succeed Mr. Jones here.

Mr. John Willis, of Henshall, will take a course of X-ray treatment from a specialist in this city. He has good hopes of being helped, is not entirely restored to health.

Mr. R. W. McDaniel who has been so long and favorably known in the city for a number of years, purchased a drug business in Detroit, and is moving his family to that city in a few days.

Rev. G. B. Sage, rector of St.
George's Church, and professor in the Western University, West London, will conduct the services in St. John's Church, Tilsonburg, on Sunday, November 30th.

The death is chronicled at Bayfield of Sarah McLeod, wife of Daniel Mc-Leod, aged 43 years, who passed away on Tuesday afternoon. She leaves a husband and three sons to mourn her loss. She was the daughter of Rochester, and Neal, of Bayfield.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Thomas Farncomb, formerly of London township, took place this morning from her late residence, 155 Central avenue.
The services at the house were conducted by Ven. Dean Innes, and at the Arva church by Rev. Canon Richardson. Interment took place at Arva.
The funeral was private.

A defective chimney caused $300 damage to a double two-story frame house at the corner of Horton and Henry streets last night. The fire was confined chiefly to the roof. Mr.
Sergeant Cooper, renewed acquaintances with his old comrades at the Barracks yesterday morning.

The Lake Erie and Detroit River Railroad Company is placing an electric alarm at the corner of Horton and
confined chiefly to the roof. Mr.
Barracks yesterday morning.

The Orangenemen of the city intend celebrating the historic Guy Fawkes Day and discovery of Gunpowder Plot on Wednesday night next, Nov. 5th.
L. O. L. Nos. 238, 762 and 805 will have charge of the celebration, and a good programme of songs, speeches and instrumental music is being arranged. The following officers of the club are:—President, J. H.
David, secretary, H. Ramsay, chairman, J. Murray, treasurer.

Mr. W. J. Legg, blacksmith, at the corner of Queen's and Talbot streets, narrowly averted what might have proved to be a serious accident yesterday morning. He was driving west on Queen's avenue, when the horse bolted. Mr. Legg hung on to the lines and the bit broke. He fell off the backboard but retained his hold and managed to turn the frightened animal into St. Paul's Cathedral grounds. A shaft of the rig was broken, but beyond this no damage occurred.

Joe Pask, 17 years of age, was arrested by Detective Nickle to-day on a charge of stealing $15 from the employee, J. B. Murphy, of Dundas street. On Wednesday last Pask overheard the remark in Murphy's store that an East London customer wanted to pay an account of $15, and securing the bill unknown to Murphy he got the bill and collected the money. The bill was returned to Detroit, where he remained until he was broke. Pask has been in jail before.

A picnic service was held in St. James' church, Ingersoll, on Thursday evening, in connection with the Huron Lay Workers and Sunday school convener, Dr. MacKenzie and Canon Brown, the lessons being read by Messrs. James Morgan and Chas. Jenkins. The rector, Rev. Jas. Thompson, and Rural Dean Ridley also took part in the services. His Lordship the Bishop preached with all his old-time eloquence and fervor from the 9th chapter of Acts and 17th verse.

The choir of the church rendered appropriate songs in a very style.
From an Irish newspaper it is learned that the Rev. Canon Dann, of this city, met with an accident while visiting amongst old friends at Chirina, last evening. He was riding in a dog-cart in company with a boy.
As they drew rein at a certain spot the Canon Dann, who was riding down the hill, was thrown from his seat. The horse bolted. Canon Dann thunking the boy had hold of the lines stood up in the vehicle preparatory to dismounting. He was thrown violently from the rig and for nearly a week was confined to his bed with concussion of the brain. He was staying at the residence of his relatives, and he sails for home on Tuesday next.
