TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

It has been decided by the city counjesty's name, in line with the other capitals of the Queen's dominions.

THE SUBSIDY BILL.

The railway subsidy bill was passed to its second reading Friday night by a substantial majority. If Dr. Walkem had not come in a moment too late his vote also would have been cast for the measure. The opposition having now placed themselves on record in respect to the measure, and having failed to carry in pressing upon the Dominion the claims of the Province for assistance in
