Some reforms require advocacy and extended argument before they are adopted. Others are accepted the moment they are mentioned. Nobody needs to argue in favor of placing the affairs of this city in the hands of paid commissioners. The Court House muddle, the Esplanade muddle, and every other complication are due to the inefficiently of the council system. The temporary occupants of seats in the council are comparatively guiltless.

Beautiful Spot For Tourists.

It does not seem to be generally known that the city of St. John, N.B., as regards population, ranks fourth in the Dominion of Canada, yet such is the case. The city of St. John is situate on a hill, and a pretty steep one at that. Its streets are wide and well kept. Its buildings, at least a large number of them, are fine specimens.

Since Confederation.

Mr. William Scott, one of Ottawa's leading millers, was on the floor of the Grain Exchange yesterday morning. Mr. Scott has a number of friends among the grain men here and he was kept busy handshaking. In conversation with The World he said: Business in and about Ottawa is quiet, but it is healthy nevertheless, and there is a steady improvement going on all the time. There was a curtailment of the lumber out last year, but business in this particular line is now good, with occasion with ferns and flowers. Among those present were Rev. W. Frizzell, Rev. R. Hamilton, Rev. Dr. McTavish, Rev. R. Wallace, Rev. W. G. Wallace, Rev. Dr. Moffat and other ministers.

Rev. William Reid of Weston, moderator, presided. The sermon was preached by Rev. Alexander Wilson of Fairbank, who took for his toxt Rom. x. 18. The address to the minister was delivored by Rev.
