Independent Order Foresters, During the past week Mr. John A. Mcfillivray, supreme secretary, has been ad- SO low. Gillivray, supreme secretary, has been addressing meetings in the interests of the order in New Jersey and New York. Mr. David Miller of Toronto, General Organizer for the State of Indiana, reached home this week, and reports to Dr. Oronbyatekha that the order in that state is making splendid progress. Public meetings in the interests of the order are almost a daily occurrence. The News-Letter of Belfast gives a long account of a lecture delivered by the High Chief Ranger of Ireland, the Rev. W. J. McCaughan, on America, after his visit to the Supreme Court of the LO.F. in September last. The Lord Mayor presided. The lecturer spoke in the highest terms of America, the LO.F. as a fraternal association, and Dr. Oronbyatekha as an able man. The first meeting of the High Court of Ireland was held in Belfast this month, the reports showing the order to have made wonderful progress in the Green Isle. The following new courts have recently been instituted: Fort Plain No. 455, at Fort Plain, N.Y.; Nonssane No. 471, at St. Johnsville, N.Y.; Burbank No. 543, at Mattawa No. 513, at Mattawa, Cal; Mattawa No. 551, at Mattawa, Cal; Mattawa No. 551, at Mattawa, Cal; Mattawa No. 768, at Rockland, Mo.; Carland City No. 800, at Watertowa, N.Y.; Labelle No. 851, at Mattawa, Chiekwaukie No. 768, at Rockland, Mo.; Carland City No. 800, at Watertowa, N.Y.; Labelle No. 851, at Mattawa, at Howland Me.; Piqua No. 923, at Piqua, Ohio; Quio No. 938, at Qunyun, Que.; Lagro, No. 601, at Lagro, Ind.; Court No. 1051, at Canning, N.S.; Court No. 1088, at Houkean, N.J.; and Gem City No. 1088, at Hotoka, N.J.; Bordentown No. 1089, at Bordentown, N.J.; and Gem City No. 1088, at Hotoka, Mich.; Bordentown No. 1088, at Hotoka, Mich. 107, at Frankford, Mich.

Untruths Corrected, Editor World: In a municipal contest, any more than in elections for higher spheres, candidates for the suffrages of their fellow-citizens need not expect to escape a certain amount of misrepresentation and misstatement at the hands of their opponent. Were it not, therefore, that the treatent. Were it not, therefore, that the treatment I have been receiving in my candidature for alderman in Ward 4 amounts to a serious untruth, I would not trouble the press with a correction. The statement, is being made and persistently circulated among my friends and among those who would naturally be expected to support me, that on account of my vocation—that of a commercial traveler—I could not in the event of my being elected to the council devote the time to the business of the city which should be given to it. This statement is altogether wrong. This matter was caredevote the time to the business of the city which should be given to it. This statement is altogether wrong. This matter was carefully considered by me before I consented to become a candidate, and it was only after making sure that not only a reasonable time but all the time demanded of aldermen by a council and committees as busy and as extravagant of time as those of 1893 could be devoted to the city that I consented to stand. I am a commercial traveler, but my business engagements are such that my time can be arranged to suit other demands, and as under my own control, I would, therefore, ask my friends and ratepayers who consider that I have the business ability necessary for the position of alderman and the integrity of character which public interest requires in an aspirant for civic honors, to pay no attention, whatever, to the canard sent broadcast in the interest of other candidates, but to rally to my support as much that civic interest will not suffer by my being elected.

With the use of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery this unpleasantness has all been removed, and I now can est what suits my taste or fancy."
