THE ADVOCATE.

Local and County News. FRIDAY, FEB. 23rd, 1877.

The Spring Show of the East Lambton Agricultural Society will be held in Watford on Tuesday, April 17, and the Fall Show in Wyoming on the 2nd and 3rd October.

Someone is getting rather sickly about this year just now, and the storm which yesternight has produced the beginning of February will have to come soon, or—God-bye, snow!

The Dispatch says that the "compositor" in its "unaccountable" way, dated their last issue Feb. 3rd. Nothing unaccountable about it. He was just a little too fast, that's all.

REMOVAL.—By referring to his card in another column, it will be noticed that Dr. N. G. Lindsay has removed from his office on Erie street, and is now occupying rooms in Mr. Dodd's new block, Main street.

The first meeting of the Village Council of Watford was held on the 15th ult. G. B. Stephenson was appointed Clerk, A. Corbett, Collector, W. J. Ward, Treasurer, G. M. Everett, Assessor, and Jas. Paisley and Jas. Jemar Auditors. They meet again on Monday next.

STARTED AT LAST.—J. B. Taylor has opened out again in the same place, and is pleasing every one of the hundreds of customers who throng his gallery. Pictures of all sizes and styles taken and finished to perfection, at reasonable rates. Come and see his place, which is filled up better than ever. 183

IN HIS NEW PREMISES.—We observe that Mr. H. W. Wynn has removed his large stock of boots and shoes into his new store, directly opposite Baker's hotel, where he will be found, courteous and obliging as ever, ready to wait upon all who favor him with their patronage. Give him a call, and he will give you every satisfaction.

THEY had quite a fire in Strathroy on Sunday morning last, when the grocery stores of Walker and W. L. Loring and those of the destroyed. They were situated on the corner of Front and Carleton streets. Mr. Loring's stock was valued at $8,000; insured for $5,200. Mr. W. L. Loring's was $2,200; insured for $1,000. The buildings belonged to the Messrs. T. and W. Loring, and were insured for $1,700.

The Erie Press odds and ends man has been joking again, this time upon the initials of the writer of the above. Contending letters which have appeared in this journal. If he can tell us where he saw a more interesting or instructive article of letters upon the subject, than he has seen in his paper, he will be glad to receive a copy of the same. He will be glad to receive a copy of the same.

RECORDED.—On Wednesday evening quite a select audience assembled in the Town Hall to hear Mr. Bengough, Canada's popular cartoonist, in his droll and raucy talk, and to witness his inimitable sketches of leading public characters, with a number of local celebrities. The lecture was very interesting indeed, abounding with the happiest puns and humorous, and was listened to with great pleasure. But, of course, the caricatures were a great feature of the entertainment, and the artist produced some of the greatest laughter. Several of the local characters were excellently drawn indeed, and showed that Mr. Bengough is rapidly improving. Altogether a very pleasant evening was spent, and those who were absent missed a rich treat.

It may not be everyone who knows it, but the fact has been clearly demonstrated lately, that Watford possesses a poet. And such a poet! He selected for his last theme circumstances supposed to be in connection with the late trial for infraction of the License Law. The individual may fancy that he has mistaken his calling hitherto, and is now commencing to branch out in the line for which he thinks is best calculated, but he had better be careful before giving up what may be a more lucrative business for him, as to have any success in the line of the he evidently cares after, he will have to go to school for some time, study grammar, and acquire at least a little originality.

The production was altogether one of the lowest that has been seen in this town, and the notice of any respectable person. Such trash does not inculcate injury to any cause it attempts to serve, although it may put considerable conceit in the head of the author.

EAST LAMPTON AGR. SOCIETY. The first meeting of the new Board of Directors of the above society was held at the Metropolitan Hotel, on Wednesday last, the President, Geo. Shirley, Esq., in the chair, and the following gentlemen present:—J. A. Coase and R. Auld, Vice-Presidents; J. D. Eccles, Treasurer; A. D. Elliott, secretary; and Jas. Bole, W. McLeay, Jas. Russell, E. A. Jones, J. W. Brannan, Jas. Armstrong and R. Robinson, directors.

The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. Mr. Coase moved, seconded by Mr. Auld, that the Treasurer, D. J. Campbell, get back the sum of $3 per cent. Interest payable yearly, and the principal at the end of the term, or in equal annual payments, at the borrower's convenience.

CAMPBELL BROS. BANKERS. Watford, May, 1876. $85,000!
