PILLS.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A

FAMILY PHYSIC.

There has long existed a public demand for an effective purpative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virties has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of all public —one which should have none of the dijections, but all the advantages, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate to the public decision, It has been unfortunate to the public decision. It has the unfortunate easy the public decision, It has been unfortunate easy. This is not. Many of these produces on maca griping fain and, cauleon in the system as to more than counterbalance of the good; to be derived from the petient hither to that almost every pargative medicine is aerimonicas and britations to the howest medicine is aerimonicas and fortisting to the howest medicine is aerimonicas and the good to be derived from them. These properties the good to be derived from them. These properties the good to be derived from them. Dr. J. C. Ayen.—ir. The Cherry Pectural is much inquited after. Several of our best Physicians have used it three of them in their own case, and always with the happiest effects. The numerous patient medicines always before them, lead to credulity in regard to every new remody; and it is only after undoubted evidence of value in any article, that any thing like a general confidence can be excited.

The univalled excellence of this combination of agents (in the Cherry Pectual.) pracedies your cavil by repeated trial and their own observation, has compiled inedical men to proclaim abroad its usefulness. It's beyond all doubt the best general remedy we have for Pulmonary Aftections of this chimate, at the same time sedative and expectorant—a rare combination of properties.
