

PUBLISHER'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

This series of Readings in Canadian History will be completed in one number more, making twelve in all. A limited number of bound copies of the whole series will then be made and offered for sale. This will give an opportunity to obtain at a slight cost a unique and interesting collection of sketches, many of which have not been heretofore published, and which are of the greatest interest and value to every student of Canadian History. Every school library in Canada should have a complete set of these Readings. Those who wish the bound volume would do well to make early application, as only a limited number will be issued.

CONTENTS OF THE FIRST NUMBERS OF THE SERIES.

- NUMBER I.—Introduction—Physical Growth of Canada—The Legend of Glooscap—Cartier's First Voyage—Winter at St. Croix Island (illustrated)—The Story of Lady La Tour—The Story of the Loyalists.
- NUMBER II.—The Cabots and their Voyages—The Settlement of Port Royal—Physiography of Nova Scotia—An Acadian Marchioness—Chapter on Names—The Fort Cumberland Summons and Reply—The Siege of Penobscot.
- NUMBER III.—General Coffin—Fort Cumberland—D'Anville's Expedition—Nicolas Denys' Description of the River St. John—Incidents in the Life of Lieut. James Moody—Story of the Big Beaver.
- NUMBER IV.—Place-Names—French Canadian Life and Character—The Story of Laura Secord—On the Study of Ancient Maps—A Scheme for the Conquest of Canada in 1746.
- NUMBER V.—The Acadian People—The Battle of Lundy's Lane—The Pennfield Colony—History in Boundary Lines—The Physiography of New Brunswick.
- NUMBER VI.—The Expulsions of the Acadians—Frontenac and his Times—The War Song—The Foundation of Halifax—The Hessians—The Capture of Mackinac in 1812—Founders of Fredericton.
- NUMBER VII.—Inheritances from our Historic Past—Nicolas Denys—Traits of Indian Character—The Maroons in Nova Scotia—The First Siege and Capture of Louisbourg—The Defence of Mackinac in 1814.
- NUMBER VIII.—The Siege of Louisbourg in 1758—Villebon and Fort Nashwaak—The Early Postal Service in British North America—The New England Movement to Nova Scotia—General Campbell's Muster—The Acadian Land in Louisiana.
- NUMBER IX.—Explorers of Canada—Newfoundland as It Is—The Heroine of Verchères—The Return of the Acadians—Location of the Acadians in Nova Scotia—The Loyalists in Old Nova Scotia—The Assault of Montgomery and Arnold on Quebec in 1755.
- NUMBER X.—History of Fruit Culture in Canada—Before the Loyalists—Father LeClerc's Voyage—Notes on Madawaska—An Old Time Conflagration.

TERMS;

Subscription Price for the Series of Twelve Numbers $1.00
Price of each number (about thirty pages)10

All orders promptly attended to.

Sent POST-PAYD on receipt of price.

Address, G. U. HAY,
EDUCATIONAL REVIEW, St. John, N. B.