Novena to the Holy Ghost. -- According to the orders of His Holiness Leo XIII, and the instructions of His Grace the Archbishop, every morning at 6 o'clock mass, the prayers of the novena to the Holy Ghost were recited in the Basilica and at night the sermons of the month of Mary were also adapted to that beautiful and solid devotion to the divine Paraclete.

Private pilgrims. — There is nothing more interesting than the Register in which the private pilgrims inscribe their names. In that reserved for members of the clergy we see the names of His Grace Monseigneur C. H. Gauthier, the new archbishop of Kingston, Ont. and that of His Secretary, Rev. Thomas Davis ; the name of Bishop Blais of Rimouski ; then those of stranger priests from San Francisco, Cal, of St. John Newfoundland, of Prince Edward Island : of Grand Rapids, Mich ; of various centres of the United States and Canada. Among the laymen, a pilgrim came from Melbourne (Australia), one from the Magdalen Islands, one from Anticosti and a great many from the United States. The number of private pilgrims.
