"The Lord be magnified."

Ps 40 : 16.

TO magnify means to make large, great or important. To magnify God means to make him very great and very important in our estimation—to make him a very large factor in our earthly existence. This means to have God in all our hopes, in all our thoughts, and in all our endeavours. What a fatal facility there is on man's part to forget God, to obscure him and put him far away! And the lamentable results of this obscuring of the great Creator are given in Rom. 1st ch, viz. : idolatry, as well as all manner of loathsome and
