THE HALIFAX SCHOOL MOVEMENT.

Notwithstanding the action of the Halifax City Council, refusing to grant equal rights to all religious persuasions, and notwithstanding that the House of Assembly refused to consider favorably a Bill to the same purpose, we heartily concur in the movement at present on foot. We endorse the following words of the Halifax Wesleyan, which says, speaking of the action of the Halifax School Association, by which equal rights to all religions have been demanded, "They have truth and common sense on their side; but they are quite too modest." That means they are quite right so far as they have gone, but they have not gone far enough. It is to be hoped that the matter will be prosecuted with all vigor until the end is accomplished. They want equal rights between Protestant and Romanist in the City of Halifax, and they are bound to have them. The following is the Statement which should have been published in the newspapers of the City, but which, up to the date of writing the present notice, was permitted to appear only in one, and in that one with the word "Advertisement" over it. How it came to have that stigmatizing word placed at his head we cannot understand, as the committee to whose care the publication was intrusted, were particularly instructed not to publish it as an advertisement.

The religious press has taken the lead in the matter, and given the Association a help along in the struggle.

A STATEMENT

ADDRESSED TO THEIR FELLOW-CITIZENS
BY THE HALIFAX SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.

During last winter a dissatisfaction with our schools and school administration that had been long felt, found expression in a petition addressed to the Mayor, asking him to convene a meeting at which your opinions on the subject might be elicited. That meeting was held, and it passed resolutions to the effect that Halifax should be intrusted with the management of its own school affairs, that an association should be formed to promote the interests of education in the City, and that a High School should be established without unnecessary delay. In accordance with these resolutions our As-

THE Reformed Episcopal Church has found an organ in the Episcopalian, which seems to have fully committed itself to the Cummins movement.
