RAAGOUT or RABBIT.—Cut up a rabbit into small neat joints convenient for serving. Cut up also a quarter of a pound of bacon, and fry it. Take it up and fry the rabbit joints in the same fat. As they become colored lay them on paper to free them from fat. Put back the bacon, and add an onion, a shallot, and a small carrot, a small turnip, and a small bunch of herbs. Turn these over in the pan a few times, add to the fried rabbit a dozen mushrooms, and a pint of stock or water. Stir in a tablespoonful of flour which has been made into a smooth paste by water. Boil up, add a glass of dark wine, if approved, and a little salt, and serve.

The entire front breadths of dressy toilets for evening wear are frequently made of beads matching in color and tone the silk, satin, velvet, or broche that forms the dress.

IMPROVED BUTTER COLOR
A NEW DISCOVERY.
For several years we have furnished the dairymen of America with an excellent artificial color for butter; so meritorious that it met with great success everywhere receiving the highest and only prizes at both International Expositions.
But by patent and scientific chemical research we have improved in several points, and now offer this new color as the best in the world. It will not color the Buttermilk. It will not turn rancid. It is the strongest, brightest and Cheapest Color Made.
And, while prepared in oil, it so compounds that it is impossible for it to become rancid. BEWARE of all imitations, and of all other oil colors, for they are liable to become rancid and spoil the butter.
If you cannot get the "Improved" write us to know where and how to get it without extra expense.
