

Monetary Times

Trade Review and Insurance Chronicle of Canada

VOLUME 59
No. 26

TORONTO, DECEMBER 28, 1917

ESTABLISHED
1867

Banking

Great banking expansion this year—Totals have made new records—Course of banking totals after next month will depend largely on war developments—Continuance of war means continuance of Canadian production at high pressure—Outlook for the coming year, Page 5

Life Insurance

Insurance agency problems after the war, Page 32. Life insurance and the war, Page 8. Review of Canadian life insurance legislation by the Dominion superintendent of insurance, Page 35. Importance of life insurance, Page 12

Trade and Commerce

Analysis of Canada's external trade, Page 40. Record of Canadian exports since Confederation, Page 12. New incorporations, Page 10. Wholesale and retail prices in Canada, Page 28. Railroad rates increased, Page 8

Industry

Growth of the pulp and paper industry in British Columbia, Page 18. Canada and the newsprint industry, Page 16. Suggestion that a Georgian Bay canal offers best solution of Canada's transportation problem, Page 6

Bond Market

The Monetary Times' weekly register of municipal financing and activities, Page 7. Plans for the next Liberty Loan, Page 26. Jay Cooke's popular loan, Page 28. Record of British Columbia municipal financing, Page 20. Anglo-French and other bonds in New York, Page 38

Corporation Finance

Record of the Granby Consolidated Smelting and Mining Company with operating figures for the past four years.—Dominion Bridge report for past year.—Quebec Bridge profits, Page 44. Earnings of the railroads, Page 12

The Week's Topics

The regulation of new Canadian issues of securities.—National endowment fund for Halifax victims.—Taxation and the encouragement of capital and immigration, Page 9. The cost of the war.—Prosperity of the war, Page 10

Fire Insurance

The Monetary Times' weekly register of fires and fire losses, Page 42. Some of the Halifax losses.—Ontario Insurance Commission hears the agents, at a special session, regarding the payment of commissions, Page 14

WEEKLY STATISTICAL RECORD—Pages 36, 38.

DIVIDENDS AND NOTICES—Page 34.

ANNUAL REPORT—Page 33.

EDITORIALS—Pages 9, 10.

Annual Subscription $3.00 . . . Single copy 10 cents