

lar—if she were we would not respect her as we do. Steadfast and immovable, we may say of Philosophy as has been said of Truth, the goal of all her endeavors :

Truth crushed to earth shall rise again,
The eternal years of God are hers :
But error wounded, writhes in pain,
And dies among his worshippers.