

THE WEEK

A JOURNAL FOR MEN AND WOMEN.

Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush.

By IAN MACLAREN. 12mo, $1.25.

"Their comedy is irresistible and all their pathos pure and moving . . . In reading them aloud there is not a page you want to skip for weariness. . . . An original humour and a very rare truthfulness are on them all, and nearly all have beauty and distinction."—Prof. G. A. Smith, in The Bookman.
 "The book is destined to a great, a long-enduring, and an enviable popularity. . . . He has many qualities—wit, humour, observation—but his distinction is his gift of temperate yet moving pathos. In this he is unsurpassed by any living writer."—Dr. Robertson Nicoll, in the British Weekly.

Chinese Characteristics.

By ARTHUR H. SMITH. With 16 full-page reproductions of original photographs.
 Second edition, revised. 8vo, cloth, $2.00.

"A few copies [of the Shanghai edition] reached the United States, one of which we read; and, probably like all other present or former residents of the Far East, we were struck with the singular penetration, learning, and sympathy of the author. The book was generally accepted by students in the Far East as not only one of the ablest analyses and portrayals of the Chinese character, but on the whole one of the most truthful and judicial."—The Nation

Among the Tibetans.

By ISABELLA BIRD BISHOP, author of "Unbeaten Tracks in Japan," etc. Illustrations by Whymper. 12mo, cloth, $1.00.

"In spite of the many books that in recent years have made Kashmir familiar ground, we have no hesitation in placing Mrs. Bishop in the front rank for brightness of relation and sympathetic insight."—The Literary World

The Meeting-Place of Geology and History.

By SIR J. WILLIAM DAWSON, author of "The Earth and Man," "Modern Ideas of Evolution," etc. Profusely illustrated. 12mo, cloth, $1.25.

"In this book, which is a reproduction of the Lowell Lectures of 1894, Sir Wm. Dawson shows how Science confirms and illustrates the teachings of Holy Writ. A number of fine engravings illustrate fossil remains of early humanity."—The Public Ledger (Phila.)

A Gift of Peace,

And Loving Greetings for 365 Days. By ROSE PORTER. Cloth, $1.00; white cloth, silver top, boxed, $1.25; decorated silk, gilt edges, boxed, $1.75.

A Gift of Love,

And Loving Greetings for 365 Days. By ROSE PORTER. Uniform in style and price with "A Gift of Peace."

"The title of this dainty volume aptly describes its character. It has a Scripture text, with an appropriate stanza of poetry and comment, for each day, and thus constitutes an excellent manual of devotion."—The Lutheran Observer.

Before He Is Twenty.

Five perplexing phases of the Boy Question considered. With portraits of the authors. 16mo, cloth, gilt top, 75 cents.

In this book some very clever men and women take up the devious path of the contemporary boy and try to land him safe among grown up people. Each one of the writers could have treated the whole difficult subject; confining themselves each to a part of it, they are a host indeed.

Sent post-paid on receipt of price. Send for Catalogue.
