

an international sculpture workshop of young artists, as well as an exhibition of architecture and town planning;

— upon the invitation of the Federal Republic of Germany, the meeting of experts envisaged in the Final Act in order to prepare a “Scientific Forum” will take place in Bonn starting on 20 June 1978. This meeting, not to exceed four weeks, will be conducted within the framework of the Follow-up to the Conference and of its rules of procedure. Representatives of UNESCO and the ECE shall be invited to state their views; — to continue encouraging research concerning the problems of security and co-operation in Europe;

— to ensure scholars, teachers and students improved possibilities of making use of libraries and open archives through encouraging the exchange of bibliographies, catalogues and lists of archival materials;

— to encourage the teaching and study of less widely-spread or studied languages, as well as the holding of seminars on the translation, publication and dissemination of books, especially those produced in these languages;

— to intensify, particularly within UNESCO, their efforts to solve problems concerning the comparison and equivalence between academic degrees and diplomas.

The participating States will make further efforts within UNESCO, in order to implement fully the provisions of the Final Act relevant to this organization.

The participating States, promoting their co-operation in the field of culture and education, will, in compliance with the relevant provisions of the Final Act, take into account the contributions that national minorities or regional cultures can make, when such minorities or cultures exist within their territory.

X

In conformity with the relevant provisions of the Final Act and with their resolve to continue the multilateral process initiated by the CSCE, in particular by successive meetings at appropriate intervals among their representatives, the participating States will hold the second of these meetings in Madrid as from the third Tuesday in February 1980.

The Meeting will be held in accordance with the provisions of the Final Act concerning the “Follow-up to the Conference”, and the Decisions of the Preparatory Meeting to the Belgrade Meeting 1977, including the statements made by the Chairman of the Preparatory Meeting on 5 August 1977, will
