

APPENDIX B (Continued)

5. Changes in Normal Attitudes and Habits

- a. Sensitivity about reference to drinking.
- b. Avoidance of superior or associates.
- c. Intolerance and suspicion of fellow workers.
- d. Loud talk, or conversely, dullness and tiredness during working hours, resentment.

6. Changes in Normal Physical Appearance

- a. Noticeable changes, such as increased nervousness.
- b. Irritability.
- c. Hand tremors.
- d. Swelling flushing of the face.
- e. Red or bleary eyes.
- f. The neat individual may become slovenly and the casual person may become deliberately concerned with dress and appearance.