

HONG KONG-CANADA BUSINESS ASSOCIATION (HKCBA)

The Association has ten sections in St. John's, Halifax, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Calgary, Edmonton, and Vancouver. With a total membership of 4000, the HKCBA is the largest bilateral association in the country. Although based on strong local committees, there is a national president, Bob Isсенman of the Law firm of Martineau Walker in Montreal. He chairs an executive committee composed of the presidents of the local chapters.

The Association meets annually with the members of Canada Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong, their overseas counterparts with a membership of more than 700 business persons.
