

The Canadian Institute for International Peace and Security was established by Parliament on 15 August, 1984. It is the purpose of the Institute to increase knowledge and understanding of the issues relating to international peace and security from a Canadian perspective, with particular emphasis on arms control, disarmament, defence and conflict resolution.

Part of this mandate is to encourage public discussion of the issues. The Institute, therefore, participates in and also sponsors conferences on related topics and may publish reports on their proceedings.

The views contained in this report do not necessarily represent those of the Institute.
