

PART III

ADMINISTRATIVE AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 11

Administrative Arrangement

1. The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall conclude an administrative arrangement that establishes the measures necessary to apply this Agreement.
2. In the administrative arrangement, the competent authorities of each Contracting State shall designate a liaison agency.

ARTICLE 12

Exchange of Information

1. A Contracting State, through its competent authority or competent agency responsible for the application of this Agreement shall:
  - (a) to the extent permitted by its laws, communicate to the other Contracting State any information necessary for the application of this Agreement and the legislation to which this Agreement applies;
  - (b) promptly communicate to the other Contracting State all information about the measures it takes to apply this Agreement or about changes in its legislation that affect how it applies this Agreement.
2. Unless disclosure is required under the laws of a Contracting State, any information about a person that is transmitted from one Contracting State to the other Contracting State in accordance with this Agreement is confidential and is used only to implement this Agreement and the legislation to which this Agreement applies. Any information about a person that is obtained by the receiving Contracting State may not be disclosed subsequently to any other person, body or country unless the sending Contracting State is notified and considers it advisable and the information is disclosed only for the same purpose for which it was originally disclosed.
