

Questions

(g) The construction of the eastern townships throughway, with its layout situated near the institution, will enable travellers to reach Montreal in less than one hour. That will certainly facilitate the keeping of professional relations between the institution staff and universities, clinics, social or government agencies, etc.

There are several social clubs in Cowansville, such as the Kiwanis Club, the Rotary Club, the Knights of Columbus, artistic groups and religious organizations and so on, which are all ready to co-operate in the rehabilitation of inmates.

7. About $6 million.

8. Inmates, men and women, were transferred from the St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary to the penitentiaries in other provinces during the last year, as follows: to the Kingston penitentiary, Kingston, Ont., 17 men; to the Women's Prison Kingston, Ont., five women; to the Dorchester Penitentiary, Dorchester, N.B., 17 men; to the Manitoba Penitentiary, Stony Mountain, Man., four men; to the Saskatchewan Penitentiary, Prince Albert, Sask., four men; to the British Columbia Penitentiary, New Westminster, B.C., two men.

R.C.M.P. BARRACKS, WILLOW BUNCH, SASK.

Question No. 905—Mr. Waison (Assiniboia):

1. Is the government giving consideration to building a new R.C.M.P. barracks at Willow Bunch, Saskatchewan?

2. What does the government use as a guide to the necessity for new office and living quarters for the R.C.M.P.?

3. Who owns the building this detachment now occupies?

Mr. Favreau: 1. No, not at the present time.

2. The permanency of the local R.C.M. Police detachment and the availability of suitable accommodation for rent.

3. The town of Willow Bunch, Saskatchewan.

KRAFT COMPANY CONTROL OF CHEESE EXPORTS
TO U.S.

Question No. 919—Mr. Latulippe:

Has an investigation been launched under the Combines Investigation Act into the allegations made by Mr. Donald C. MacDonald to the effect that the Kraft Company, which operates in Canada as well as in the United States exercises a control on the exports and sales of Canadian cheddar to the United States?

Mr. Macdonald: The director informs me that press reports of Mr. MacDonald's allegations indicate that the situation relates to import quotas imposed under United States legislation and therefore would not appear to be a matter coming within the purview of the Combines Investigation Act. Should further information indicate otherwise, however, the director may be expected to take any action which the statute may require.

[Mr. Latulippe.]

JUVENILE DELINQUENTS IN FEDERAL INSTITUTIONS

Question No. 922—Mr. Latulippe:

1. How many juvenile delinquents from the province of Quebec are detained in federal institutions?

2. Are measures taken to separate juvenile delinquents from adult prisoners?

[Translation]

Answer: 1. Eight (8), as at December 31, 1963.

2. While there are no special facilities for the segregation of juvenile delinquents, they are placed in special sections of the penitentiary or detained in institutions for juvenile delinquents.

[Text]

RENTAL OF WORLD EXHIBITION SITES

Question No. 927—Mr. Latulippe:

1. How many sites have now been rented on the grounds of the 1967 world exhibition?

2. What was the rent in each case?

3. What is the total amount received to date from rentals?

[Translation]

Answer: 1. One.

2. In this case, $10,000.

3. See answer to No. 2.

[Text]

R.C.M.P. AUXILIARY POLICE

Question No. 932—Mr. Barnett:

1. Are auxiliary police being enrolled with the R.C.M.P. and, if so, in what provinces is this being done and under what legislative or governmental authority?

2. What are the duties to be performed by auxiliary police and what course of training do they receive?

3. What remuneration or emoluments do auxiliary police receive?

Mr. Favreau: 1. Auxiliary police have been enrolled with the R.C.M. Police in the provinces of British Columbia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. This has been done by provincial order in council which is authorized under the provincial civil defence act.

2. The duties of these auxiliary police are to assist the R.C.M. Police in effectively discharging its provincial duties in time of national emergency or natural disaster. Their training consists of instruction in the following subjects, which is carried out by the R.C.M. Police: (a) criminal law; (b) crowd control; (c) discipline; (d) emergency planning; (e) first aid; (f) foot drill; (g) general police work; (h) small arms training.