

Owll, Prince
Edward Island

27 July 1973

Dear Sir Arthur,

I completed
the task you entrusted to me. It was not hard to find a Theme: The place of speaking was in sight of Sir William Dawson's old home. I am sorry you were not of the party. You would have come here. Sir Archibald Macdonell
came for a few days; he professed himself highly pleased. The Island paper did what it could by
