

TAB'LE OF CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I. P. 1—12.

New France—Acadie,—its extent, climate and productions. Voyages of Discovery. Visit of de la Roche to Sable island. DeMonts' patent.

CHAPTER II. P. 13—24.

DeMonts voyage to Acadie in 1604. His survey of the coast towards New England, Ste. Croix. Appendix—DeMonts' commission from Henry 4.

CHAPTER III. P. 25—30.

Port Royal—founded in 1605. De Monts visits it in 1606.

CHAPTER IV. P. 31—42.

Poutrincourt—his encounter with hostile Indians near cape Mallebarre. L'Escarbot—his poetical turn. Champlain's order 'de bon temps'—1606. Memberton's war on the Armouchiquois. 1607. Poutrincourt returns to France. Appendix—Indian manners. Verses on the Indian names of places in Acadie.

CHAPTER V. P. 43—47.

Souriquois or Micmacs, Etchemins. Champlain begins his settlement at Quebec in 1608. Baptism of Indians in 1610. Biencourt visits France to seek aid for the colony. Madame de Guercheville promotes a mission of Jesuits. The English settle Newfoundland in 1610.

CHAPTER VI. P. 48—52.

Voyage of the Jesuits. Discord as to burial place of Memberton. DeMonts transfers his claims on Acadie to madame de Guercheville, 1611, 1612.

CHAPTER VII. P. 53—63.

1613. Jesuits mission settle near Monts Deserts. They are attacked and captured by Argal, an English commander from Virginia. Argal erases and destroys all monuments at Port Royal. Poutrincourt is killed in battle in France in 1615. His epitaph.

CHAPTER VIII. P. 64—72.

Companies formed for fishery and trade. Sir William Alexander obtains a grant of Nova Scotia from king James 1st. His attempts at settlement. The Scotch fort near Goat island. Baronets of Nova Scotia. Company of New France formed in 1628. Kirk takes Port Royal in 1628, and Quebec in 1629.

CHAPTER IX. P. 73—83.

Claude de la Tour, and Charles Amador, his son. Claude captured by Kirk. Charles de la Tour commands at cape Sable. Claude marries a second wife. Endeavors to lead his son to surrender his fort to the English. 1631. Charles de la Tour made lieutenant general of Acadie.