

laurel, on the 23rd May, 1841. The Churchwardens have lent me the paper to copy a Prospectus it contains, and among the subscribers are four persons of the name of Macdonald,—namely: A. Macdonald, Three Rivers; Angus Macdonald, Cornwall, U. C.; W. Macdonald, Gaspé; and Town-Major Macdonald, Montreal.

If, when you are writing to Mr. Lloyd, you would like to mention the above circumstance regarding the gallant Wolfe, perhaps he may know Mr. Hawkins, and would feel a satisfaction in informing him of the fact of his Mercury, Card, and Wreath, being found on the coffin as he left them, after a lapse of eighteen years. They are now in the custody of the Churchwardens, one of whom, Mr. T. Huntley, has promised me that they shall still be preserved as interesting relics of the departed hero. With the exception of the upper fold of the Mercury, the paper and type is as perfect as when placed on the coffin by Mr. Hawkins.’”
