

stitutions in Quebec, on the bank of the St. Charles, there is also an institution for female education ; and the same building is an orphanic principles, Street, and the asylum for aged and infirm persons.

River St. Charles. The Spot where General Montgomery Fell, has been recorded, by a tablet erected upon the rock, at from this brief Près-de-Ville, by A. HAWKINS, Esq., to whose exertions has been wanting in publishing the traditionary glories of Quebec its and duties. We habitants owe a debt of gratitude. In a brochure of idious distinction this description it is to us incompetent to detail the incidents which lead to the defeat of the General. The , that, from com- remains of that gallant officer have since been trans- ments have accom- ferred to New York, where they now repose, in St. the poor and the Paul's Church.

nt institutions, as The following facts relating to the interment, and ritorial revenues, disinterment of the body of General MONTGOMERY, rable emulation, we have borrowed from Hawkins' Picture of Quebec— aritable institu- " In the year 1818, a request having been made to the and conducted Governor-in-Chief, Sir John Sherbrooke, for leave the enumeration order that they might be conveyed to New York, and the limits of the there re-interred, His Excellency acceded to the request, r assertion. which came to him on the part of Mrs. Montgomery, ons in Quebec, the widow of the General. Mr. Thompson gave the School, and the following affidavit of the facts in order to satisfy the r, others of ex- surviving relations and friends of General MONTGOMERY, tion, in which that the remains which had been so disinterred after the o have the first lapse of forty-two years by the same hand that had vent are skilled interred them, were really those of the late General. eation, and their Mr. Thompson belonged to the army of WOLFE, in 1759. y children prostitution, con- " I, JAMES THOMPSON, of the city of Quebec, in the . Boarders are Province of Lower Canada, do testify and declare—that ls, who receive It was founded I served in the capacity of an Assistant Engineer during the first Bishop of the siege of this city, invested during the years 1775 vages of fire— and 1776 by the American forces under the command of r in 1701 and the late Major General RICHARD MONTGOMERY. That in roachable from an attack made by the American troops under the hich is adorned immediate command of General MONTGOMERY, in the night of the 31st December, 1775, on a British post at Roch's Suburb, the southernmost extremity of the city, near Près-de-Ville,