

...more or less, and being composed of the the Seventh Concession of the Township of Westminster; and situate in the said Township of Westminster, and containing by g composed of part of the South-Westerly part of Lot Number ynship of Westminster, and is more particularly described in the d known as his residence.

miles from the City of London, on a good concession road, about of London, and about one and one-quarter miles from Glanworth Station on the London except about two acres of wood land, which is on the firstly se, barn and shed, and a good orchard of bearing trees, and a e of sale to the Plaintiff's Solicitors, a deposit of ten per e balance within one month thereafter without interest.

e conveyances at his or their own expense, and will submit for vesting orders in lieu of conveyances.

as are the standing conditions of the Court of Chancery.

ulars apply to Messrs. Fraser & rs; S. H. Graydon, Esq., and Messrs. endant's Solicitors.

J. SHANLY,

Master in Chancery, London