

- English language in India, 68.
 Eurasians, in India, 61, 63, 125.
 European influence over rest of world, 1.
 Evidence Code, in India, 119.
 Finance: in Roman and Indian empires, 35-39.
 French law, codification of, 99.
 Frontiers, of Roman and Indian empires, 14-19.
 Fusion: of races in Roman empire, 58, 68;
 of Roman and provincial law, 90, 91.
 German law, codification of, 100.
 Gortyn, laws of, 83.
 Greek Civilization, spread of, in ancient world, 3.
 Greek law, 83, 94.
 Hastings, Warren, 27, 71.
 Hawaiian Islands, 2.
 High Court: in India, 42.
 Hindu Law, administered in India, 106-110.
 Hindustani language, 66.
 Horace, 61.
 Ilbert, Sir C. P., 27, 62, 80, 110.
 India: British conquest, 5-7;
 military character of empire, 12, 13;
 natural frontiers, 15, 16;
 roads and railways, 20, 21;
 internal peace, 23, 24;
 character of administration, 25-32;
 India; protected states, 34;
 fiscal system, 35-39;
 native army, 42;
 native civil service, 42;
 private civil rights, 46;
 legislative councils, 47;
 religious usages, 52;
 education, 53;
 influence of climate, 59;
 influence of colour, 59-62;
 influence of religion, 62, 63;
 influence of language and literature, 65-68;
 no fusion of races, 69;
 little influence on England, 70-73;
 probable future of British power, 76-78;
 legal systems found by the English, 105-108;
 English continued existing systems of law, 108-112;
 codification, 112-115;
 merits and working of the codes, 117-122;
 probable future of legal development, 127-131.
 Ireland, law of, 102.
 Islam, law of, 79, 81;
 administered in India, 105-111.
Ius gentium, in Roman law, 90.
 Land Revenue, in Roman and Indian empires, 35-37.
 Langdell, Prof. C. C., 104.
 Language, effect of, in Roman and Indian empires, 65-68.
 Legislative Councils, in India, 47.
 Leibnitz, on Mogul empire, 10.