

NOVELS BY ISRAEL ZANGWILL

Uniformly bound. Price 6s. each.

CHILDREN OF THE GHETTO

"From whatever point of view we regard it, it is a remarkable book."—The Times.

DREAMERS OF THE GHETTO

"A brave, eloquent, absorbing, and, on the whole, persuasive book."—W. E. HENLEY in The Outlook.

GHETTO TRAGEDIES

"This remarkable and engrossing volume."—The Spectator.

GHETTO COMEDIES

"His powerful pen blends humour, pathos, irony and pity in these clever stories."—The Manchester Courier.

THE CELIBATES' CLUB

"It is impossible to read this book without being delighted with it."—The Nation.

THE GREY WIG, STORIES AND NOVELETTES

Including "Merely Mary Ann," "The Big Bow Mystery," and other celebrated stories.

THE KING OF SCHNORRERS

"It is a beautiful story and is that great rarity, an entirely new thing, that is as good as it is new."—The Daily Chronicle.

THE MANTLE OF ELIJAH

"On every page some witty and memorable phrase, or trenchant thought, or vivid picture."—The Outlook.

THE MASTER

"A veritable human document, in which the characters do exactly as they would in life."—The Queen.

WITHOUT PREJUDICE [Essays]

"Mr. Zangwill combines the biting wit of Shaw with the ripe wisdom of George Meredith."—Berliner Tageblatt.

WITH LOUIS COWEN.

THE PREMIER AND THE PAINTER

"Cleverly original, and often lightened with bright flashes of wit."—The Morning Post.

WILLIAM HEINEMANN, 21 BEDFORD ST., LONDON, W.C.