

- ments, 271-276; French and English troops sent to America, 281; first naval battle, 282; first comprehensive plan, 285, 294; war declared, 301; strategic points, 326; English preparations for campaign of 1759, 343; plan of campaign of 1759, 344. See also fortified places and generals by name.
- Frontenac, Louis de Buade, Count of, governor of Canada, 115; character and influence over the Indians, 116.
- Frontier, advance of English settlements, 259-264; Indian depredations, 301. See also Kennebec River, Ohio valley.
- Fry, Joshua, colonel Virginia militia, on the frontier, 273.
- Frye, Jonathan, in Lovewell's fight, 246; death, 247; verses on, 248.
- Fur-trade, early French, on the Hudson, 28; monopoly of Canadian, 36-38, 49, 57, 59, 90; Champlain controls, 82; interests opposed to settlement, 88; route, 104, 261; diversion to the English, 262.
- Gage, Thomas, lieutenant-colonel under Braddock, 289.
- Gastaldi, Jacopo, Italian geographer, map, 27.
- Gates, Horatio, with Braddock, 289.
- General Court of Massachusetts, character under new charter, 185.
- Geneva, Switzerland, execution of witches, 142.
- Geography, alleged chart of Denys, 4-6; Luiz's map, 7; Verrazano's map, 11; Maggiolo's map, 11; Verrazano Sea, 11; cartographical union of Hudson and St. Lawrence rivers, 27.
- Germany, last execution for witchcraft, 144; emigration to the English colonies, 259.
- Gist, Christopher, with Washington, 270; journal, 271 n.
- Glover, Mrs., of Boston, executed for witchcraft, 148; c. 1680, 152.
- Good, Sarah, accused of witchcraft, 162; execution, 180.
- Goodwin, John, his children bewitched, 148; Cotton Mather's connection with the case, 152-154.
- Governors, English colonial, conflicts with the Assemblies, 242, 243, 262, 272, 273, 277, 285.
- Grant, James, English major, disastrous reconnoissance on Fort Duquesne, 339; contempt for provincials, 340.
- Grants, fur-trade monopoly, 36-38, 49, 59, 90; of Acadia to Monts, 49; Madame de Guercheville's, 76; of Nova Scotia to Alexander, 93; of Acadia to Temple, 96. See also Charter.
- Gravé, François. See Pontgravé.
- Great Awakening of 1734, 225-228; and the Halfway Covenant, 225, 231; and Antinomianism, 228; decline, 229; opposition, 229; effect, 231.
- Griffin, La Salle's schooner, built, 124; loss, 126.
- Groseilliers, Sieur des, explorations in the West, 101.
- Guercheville, Antoinette, Marchioness de, and the Jesuits, 74; grant, 76.
- Gulf of St. Lawrence, alleged discovery, 4; Fagundes's exploration, 7; Cartier in, 13, 14.
- Haldimand, Frederick, English colonel, restores and defends Oswego, 345; manuscripts, 345 n.
- Hale, Sir Matthew, English jurist, belief in witchcraft, 138, 140.
- Hale, Mrs., of Beverly, accused of witchcraft, 184.
- Half-King, Indian chief on the