men of different races, but races of equal rank, are found who live together under the same Government, the only policy which can give adequate justice to all, which can give astisfaction to all, which can insure narmony, is a policy of equal rights to all—[loud cheers]—a policy which will give to every citizen, without any question of his birth, the same rights, the same privileges, the same aspirations. This is the policy which we have adopted in this country, and I think we can fairly claim, with some pride, that it has proved eminently successful. It is the policy which at this moment prevails in Cape Colony; it is on trial, but there, as here, it must prove, in the end, eminently successful. It is the policy which, I submit, ought to prevail in the Transvall. Let the Dutch of the Transvall. Let the Dutch of the Transvall Let the Dutch of the Transvall

Mr. Foster:

"That this House has viewed with regret the complications which have arisen in the Transvaal Republic, of which Her Majesty is suzerain, from the refusal to accord Her Majesty's subjects, now settled in that region, any adequate participation in its government.

"That this House has learned with still greater regret that the condition of things there existing has resulted in intolerable oppression, and has produced great and dangerous excitement among several classes of Her Majesty's subjects in her South African possessions.

"That this House, representing a people who have largely succeeded by the adoption of the principle of conceding equal political rights to every portion of the population, in harmonizing estrangements, and in producing general content with the existing system of government, desires to express its sympathy with the efforts of Her Majesty's Imperial authorities to obtain for the subjects of Her Majesty who have taken up their abode in the Transvaal such measures of justice and political recognition as may be found necessary to secure them in the full possession of equal rights and Hoertles."

All Mankind Interested.

Sir Wilfrid, continuing, said it might be urged that the interests of the Empire require that the rights of the Uitlanders be recognized in the Republic. He would not, however, put the question on that ground. That idea would appeal to British subjects alone; but he thought the question was one which would appeal to the conscience and judgment of mankind at large. If there is any country in the world, he said.

speak its sympathies for such a noble and moral and just cause.

The Object of It All.

Sir Wilfrid in concluding said the object of the resolution was that we should extend to our fellow-countrymen in South Africa the right hand of good fellowship that would assure them that our heart is with them, and that in our judgment they are in the right; the object would be to assure the imperial authorities who have taken in hand the cause of the Uitlanders that on that question we are one with them, and that they are also in the right; and perhaps the effect might be also that this mark of sympathy, or universal sympathy, extending from continent to contilent. And encircling the globe, may cause wiser and more humane counsels to prevail in the Empire and avert the awful arbitrant of war.

Mr. Foster's Remarks.

The Discrete of It All.

The butchers are threatening an injunction and have even raised money to fight out. But an alderman said yesterday, "If they know when they are well off they will keep quiet."

Building Falling Off.

The returns of permits for July show a slight falling of in building as compared with last year. In fact the same may be said of the total for the first seven months of 1899, as the following table will show:

Month. 1898. 1899.

wiser and more numane counsels to prevail in the Empire and avert the awful arbitrant of war.

Mr. Foster's Remarks.

The Premier read a letter from Sir Charles Tupper, stating that it was impossible for him to be in the House, but that he was thoroughly in sympathy with the sentiment of the resolution. Hom. G. E. Poster, for the Opposition, said: "We on this side unitedly and most heartly concur in every sentiment expressed by myright hon, friend, as well as in the purpose of the resolution, and the reasons for which it has been presented to the House. Nothing that he has said could have been better expressed. The reasons which he gave will be considered, I imagine, all sufficient reasons with this House for the transmous adoption of the resolution."

The resolution was then passed unantimously, the members rising and singing "God Save the Queen," the spectators in the gallery standing while the National Anthem was sung.

Chicago, July 31.—A meeting of the stock-holders of the Diamond Match Company was held here to-day. It was unanimously voted to increase the capital stock from the present basis of $11,000,000 to $15,000,000. It is generally understood that the bulk of the $4,000,000 will be used in buying up some compering plants and wiping out the floating debt of the company. Edwin Gould, the principal owner of the Continental Match Company, it is asserted, is to receive between $750,000 and $1,000,000 in Diamond Match Stock. A Magic Pill—Dyspepsia is a foe with which men are constantly grapping, but cannot exterminate. Subdued, and to all appearances vauquished, in one, it makes its appearance in another direction. With such persons disorders of the stomach ensue from the most trivial causes and cause nuch suffering. To these Parmalee's Vegetable Pills are recommended as mild and sure.
