Hollis replied, "Fifty dollars is as good to me as to anyone."

Fort Johnston showed some class in the Waterdown Handicap for three-year-olds and upward, at one and a sixteenth miles, the last event on the card. After being well up all the way, the drew away in the stretch run to win the cashly by two lengths from Cave Adsum, with Pinkola third. The latter got away slowly, but finished fast. this race, running the distance in the first mile in 1.38 flat. The old record 1.46 was held by Creel.

Bergoo took the steeplechase after a hard drive with Class Leader, just getting up in the last few yard. Injury was much the best in the second race, leading all the way. Joe Rose, the favorite, could never get to the winner at any stage. Jockey Burns brought Stromeland home first in the fourth event, two lengths in front of Hiacko. The latter, away slowly, was many lengths back going up the back stretch, but closed resolutely in the run home and was catching Stromeland at every jump, looking to be much the best. The first race was only a gallop for Ida D., the davorite, being held at one to three.
