This is the second day of our sale to dispose of fifty thousand dollars' worth of fur goods, the surplus stock of one of the largest of the New York manufacturers and which we purchased last week at very tempting prices. These goods are superior and are absolutely splendid in quality. We ask you to call and to convince yourself of the real nature of the bargains.

The opening day was yesterday and we were crowded from morning till closing time. The sales were heavy, but they made only a slight impression on the big stock.

This morning we put into the sale some splendid Ladies' Muskrat Jackets received from our own work-rooms, and we give them first in the list here printed. It is worth calling your attention to the fact that Muskrat is steadily advancing in price, and already within the last month an advance of over thirty per cent. has been recorded. For $40.00 Musk pat Coats. 24 and 26 inches long, lined and trimmed in best style, blouse fronts, $40. Were $60.

MILLS IS AWARDED $400 WAS LIBELLED, SAYS JURY

Him to Come to Toronto.

HAMILTON, Jan. 13.—(Special.)—F.

Mills was given a verdict of $400 and osts in his suit against The Spectator. for libel. The jury were out two hours. Mr. Mills also asked for an injunction Mr. Mills also asked for an injunction restraining The Spectator from using his name in any manner derogatory to his reputation. Justice Clute set tomorrow for the argument in this application, altho he said the testimony did not disclose any evidence of malice. George S. Lynch-Staunton, K.C., for The Spectator, argued that a corporation could not display malice, and the justice replied to him as follows:

Teacher Can't Go. The board of education decided to wrom year to year on the probable out-old W. A. Schofield, principal of the put.

It was moved by F. G. H. Patterson Caroline-street school, to his contract, which will not expire until the end of the session, and refused to allow him to accept a better offer from the Toronto Board of Education. Trustee Mc-Cullough said: "It's a gross piece of impertinence on the part of Toronto Board to offer a Hamilton teacher a position, when it must know that he vas under contract for a year." He ranted the board to write a letter to the Toronto Board saying so. The board closed the year with a surplus of $1326. It was stated that the board was accused of spending $2600 which was granted to them for teachers' sai-aries, and this year's finance commitetirement of William Bell, K.C.

CANADA'S FIRE LOSSES

Over Eighteen Millions Sacrificed to Flames Last Year.

In a paper read by Fred. W. Field, panaging editor of The Monetary managing editor of The Monetary Times, to the Insurance Institute of To-routo last evening, he stated that during last year Canada's sacrifice to the flames amounted to $18,905,538. The flames amounted to $18,905,538. The highest losses were sustained in May, when property valued at $3,358,276 was burned. The lowest less was in April, with a total of $720,650. The loss per capita was approximately $2.70. The spect pita was approximately $2.70. The speak er pointed out that the average annual loss per capita in Austria, Denmark, France and Germany combined is only of the losses in the figures quoted had been caused by incendiarism, and urged the appointment of a fire investigator, a man trained for that particular work, in every province. This system has been tried in the Province of Manitoba, and a decided decrease is noted in incendiary fires, the bringing to justice of the persons responsible there-for, and a gratifying decrease in the Manitoba fire losses generally.

Such fire marshals or commissioners are common in the United States, while

Heart Trouble Cured.

Through one cause or another a large majority of the people are troubled with some form of heart trouble.

The system becomes run down, the heart palpitates, you have weak and dizzy spells, a smothering feeling, cold clammy hands and feet, shortness of breath, sensation of pins and needles, rush of blood to the head, etc.

Wherever there are sickly people with weak hearts Milburn's Heart and Nerre Pills will be found an effective medicine. Mrs. Wm. Elliott.
