A Really Handsome Shoe

This season we have added to our line of Men's Six Dollar Boots a real Kangaroo Skin Laced Boot, made on the "Princeton" last with a good heavy sole.

There is not much genuine Kangaroo leather used in boots nowadays on account of its scarcity and high price. Some dealers have been known to offer Vici Kid as Kangaroo. The advantage of Kangaroo is that it is as soft as kid, but will not peel, check or become defaced. The last we have had these boots made on will appeal to the man who seeks a modest shapely shoe, devoid of all freakish tendencies.

quent and prolonged applause. The drama was thrilling at times, and in addition had a generous sprinkling of comedy which made it very interesting. Elizabeth Johnson, as the barones, won new laurels by the clever way she handled a most amusing though difficult character. Earl May as the villain and Ernest East as his accomplice, did well and contributed in making the play a success. The other members of the cast gave clever impersonations and won well merited applause. The play held the attention of the audience and from all indications will be well liked and patronized.

The introduction of vaudeville was a good move on the part of the management. The three ypsomae harmonists gave a delightful performance. The playing of various instruments was unusually good and the choice of their selection all the more commendable. The concertist was undoubtedly the best player. The ease with which she took the stage was a revelation to many in the audience who have some knowledge of the instrument, and her tone was exceptionally good.

Jewel Replaces Wildfire, Last in Transit—Vaudeville Holds Attention

Due to the fact that the production of Wildfire with Miss Effie Russell in her original role was being transported from Montreal to St. John, the management of the Lyric theatre were successful in arranging for the presentation of Miss Elia Hall in the Broadway Street Universal feature, Jewel. It is expected that Wildfire will be shown next week.

The substitute is decidedly a worthy one as it affords lovers of Miss Hall, and they are numerous, to see her in a role that suits her peculiar and pleasing style of acting. The story of Jewel is from the book by Clara Louise Burnham and the picture scenario was written by Lois Weber. The telling of the story shows the touch of a feminine hand all the way, for Miss Weber was also the producer. Jewel contains pathos in abundance but it is even throughout with smiles that will alternate with the tears of the susceptible. The story is frankly that of a child brought up in a home where true faith and happiness in a small way, and it cannot help but move and stir those who go to make up the great picture-going public.

It was received by yesterday's audience with no small amount of pleasure, and the disappointment caused was eliminated to a great degree by such a worthy substitute as Jewel. The picture will be shown Thursday, Friday and Saturday. West and Tate in feats of strength were exceptionally good.

Baseball Pictures Attract and There is Good General Programme

Baseball fans were out in force yesterday, attracted to the Unique by the announcement that the first game of the world's baseball series would be presented. It was found to be the most interesting number of the many subjects introduced by the players and showing several of the runs made. The programme is one that can be strongly recommended. A two-part Bison drama, entitled "The Governor's Daughter," found favor with the large audience, as it is a mixture of solid dramatic moments and intense sensational action, the latter being particularly true of the wonderful fire scene portrayed. Comedy, and lots of it, is contained in the L-K subject, A Mortgage on His Daughter, which represents the last word in farcical playlets, the chase scenes being particularly funny.

The baseball picture and the other features will be shown for the last time today. The Great Ruby Mystery is the head-line offering for the mid-week.

GEORGE P. MELROSE OF ST. JOHN AND MISS LOMBARD MARRIED

Wedding of Interest to Many Here Took Place in Missoula, Mont.

The Sunday Missoulian of Oct. 10 prints a large portrait of Miss Agnes Lombard, who was married the week before, in Missoula, to George P. Melrose, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Melrose, of St. John. These lines are under the picture:

"Mrs. George Payson Melrose, formerly Miss Agnes Lombard, whose wedding with Mr. Melrose was solemnized on Tuesday, Oct. 5. Mrs. Melrose spent her childhood years in Missoula, and she is admired and loved by a host of friends here as well as in the eastern cities."

Mrs. Melrose is a niece of Mrs. Ward-rop and Mrs. Thos. Perkins of St. John, and is also related to the Hatheway and some other families in St. John. The following account of the wedding is taken from the Missoulian:

Melrose-Lombard. The wedding of Miss Agnes Louise Lombard and George Payson Melrose was solemnized at eleven o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Agnes Lombard, corner of Main and Broadway avenues. Rev. H. S. Gately, rector of the Church of the Holy Spirit, performed the ceremony, reading the beautiful ring service of the Episcopal church. Mrs. DeLoss Smith played Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" as a prelude, following with the wedding march from "Lohengrin" and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" for the entrance of the bride party. The setting of the service was most artistic. White pillars were placed against a background of pink and white asters and garlands with vines and banded with pink asters. Leading the bridal procession walked the bride, carrying a basket of pink roses and dropping bouquets in her path. Then came Master Edwin Dodd, the small nephew of the bride, carrying the ring in a rose. Miss Madeline Lombard was the bridesmaid, dressed in pale pink silk and carrying pink carnations. The bride wore a flower petal gown of white tulle and a veil caught with white roses. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Edwin Boone Craighead, Jr., was groomsmen, and Thomas W. Seely, brother-in-law of the bride, gave her in marriage. A small company of relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony and partook of the wedding breakfast which Misses Grace Buford, Constance Keith and Katherine Craighead assisted in serving. The breakfast table was exquisitely appointed in pink and white. A centre bouquet of pink sweet peas and place favors of pink roses and pink-shaded candles carried out the dainty conception.

Mr. and Mrs. Melrose were recipients of a wealth of beautiful and costly gifts, sent with the loving good wishes of friends at home and abroad. After a short tour of Pacific coast cities, Mr. and Mrs. Melrose will reside at Vernon, B. C., where Mr. Melrose is district forester in the government service.

Guests at the wedding were Messrs. and Mesdames J. W. Buford and daughter Grace, H. S. Gately, F. S. Lusk, G. F. Peterson, A. L. Duncan and two sons, T. G. Hatheway, J. J. Lacy, T. A. Fitzgerald, W. G. Bateman, DeLoss Smith, E. B. Craighead, F. P. Keith, P. M. Kelly, J. M. Orris, W. W. Berry, Daa Ross, E. S. Dodd, T. W. Seely and daughter; Misses Josephine Hatheway, Miriam Hatheway, Harriet Kidder, Bernice Berry, Bernice Kemp, Charlie Johnson, Frances Birdall, Leona Forbes, Anabel Ross and E. B. Craighead, Jr.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

It's Grandmother's Recipe To Keep Her Locks Dark, Glossy, Thick

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage. Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wychell's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 80 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wychell's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hairs.
