DENTAL CAMPAIGN

Dr. H. S. Thomson of Toronto to Make a Tour of Nova Scotia.

(Halifax Chronicle).

Beginning on Wednesday, Nov. 8, Dr. H. S. Thomson, dental executive of the Canadian Oral Prophylactic Association and the Department of Dental Research, University of Toronto, will begin in Halifax, a thirty day Dental Educational Campaign throughout Nova Scotia.

Dr. Thomson is a native of New Brunswick, where he practiced several years, and during the war moved to Toronto as an officer in the Canadian Army Dental Corps, in which he rendered excellent service.

On his retirement from the army, he was appointed to his present position, and in 1921 delivered addresses to dental societies, women's and men's clubs, universities, Boards of Education, school teachers, Normal Colleges as well as the general public throughout the west. He is a fluent and interesting speaker and presents the subject of Oral Hygiene and its relations to the general health in a very attractive and convincing manner.

During his visit to Nova Scotia he will appear under the auspices of the Nova Scotia Dental Association and will co-operate with the Red Cross Society in several meetings. His engagement in Halifax includes visits to health centers, dental colleges, public
