ously sought) into some unusual, although very trifling expenditure incurred under some temporary and extraordinary circumstances. This is a course of proceeding than which we conceive nothing more flagrantly dishonest; and we think that the Assembly has done itself immeasurable damage, not by this vote alone, but by the whole tenor of the Bill which it has sent up to the Council for its contingent supplies. It is perfectly notorious that whilst the revenues of the country have been rapidly diminishing, the contingent expenses of the House of Assembly have been still more rapidly increasing; and that when that House openly and publicly admits its FRAUDULENT TRANSACTIONS, is it for Her Majesty's Council to abstain from every inquiry into them!—The attempt to shuffle out of this inquiry will be an everlasting disgrace to this most disgraceful House of Assembly. It is not only dishonourable, but it is base and dishonest in the extreme.

PROROGATION OF THE LEGISLATURE.—His Excellency the Governor has intimated to the House of Assembly by Message, that it is His Excellency's intention to Prorogue the Legislature on Saturday next, the 12th instant. And, we hope dismiss the present HONORABLE batch.

UNEXAMPLED
MAMMOTH SCHEME.
 THE following detail of a Scheme of a LOTTERY to be drawn in December next, warrants us in declaring it to be unparalleled in the history of Lotteries. Prizes to the amount have never before been offered to the public. It is true, there are many blanks, but on the other hand, the extremely low charge of 20 Dollars per Ticket—the value and number of the Capitals, and the revival of the good old custom of warranting that every Prize shall be drawn and sold, will, we are sure, give universal satisfaction, and especially to the Six Hundred Prize Holders.
 To those disposed to adventure we recommend early application being made to us for Tickets—where the Prizes are all sold, blanks only remain—the first buyers have the best chance.—We therefore, emphatically say—delay not! but at once remit and transmit to us your orders, which shall always receive our immediate attention. Letters to be addressed, and application made to
