ITEMS OF NEWS.
Mr. Beth Mercer, of the Western Union Cable Staff, of this town, went to New York, U.S.A., recently.
Mr. Mercer is the local representative to the Western Union Employees' Association Conference, which will be held at that city. We wish him a very enjoyable trip.
Mr. and Mrs. I. Russell Kearley and daughter, Winnifred, of Vancouver, B.C., who have spent several months here visiting Mr. Kear-ley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kearley, left by Wednesday morn-ing's train for St. John's, enroute to their home. Mr. Kearley was glad to meet many old friends and to note improvements in the town since his last visit some fifteen years ago. We appreciate Mr. Kearley's words, "No visitor is more welcome to us in Vancouver, than the old home paper, the "Guardian." It is better than a letter and forms a link between those who are far away and the folks at home." Miss Clara Kearley accompanied her brother and family as far as St. John's, where they took the Rosalind for Canada.

Inauguration of Dawe Lodge, S. U. F., No. 82, at Bay Roberts

A deputation from the Supreme Grand Lodge, Society of United Fishermen, visited Bay Roberts on Thursday, 19th inst., for the purpose of opening a new Lodge.
In the Parish Hall at 3 p.m. Bro.
George Langmead, R.W. D.G.M., assisted by the following Grand Lodge officers: Bros. W. Mugford, G.C.O., R. LeDrew, G. Parsler, Geo.
Dawe, (W.M. of Pilot Lodge) H.
Andrews, P.M., John Dawe, Jabez Dawe and I. Andrews (of Pilot Lodge) opened the new Lodge, and conducted the installation of Officers as follows:
W.M.—Bro. Arch Bradbury.
C.O.—Bro. Thomas Meyer.
S.O.—Bro. Reuben Parsons.
Chaplain—Bro. W. E. Mercer.
G.M.—Bro. T. M. Caravan.
Parsler—Bro. Walter J. Mercer.
Secretary—Bro. R. J. Mercer.
L.O.—Bro. Richard Bradbury.
The R.W. D.G.M. then declared Lodge Dawe No. 82 opened and in working order. Quite a large number of Brethren attended from Port de Grave and Barened Lodges.
At 6 p.m. the Lodge adjourned, while the visiting Brethren were entertained by their brothers of the new Lodge.
The Lodge met again at 8 p.m. when the Grand Lodge Officers demonstrated the various degrees, by initiating several candidates.
The new Lodge is called "DAWE" in memory of the late Capt. Charles Dawe, who lived, died and was buried a Fisherman.

Successful Play

The play entitled "The Minister's Bride", which was presented before a large and representative audience in Snowden Hall on Wednesday night, Feb. 18th, was a success from start to finish. Mr. A. E. Mercer acted as Chairman and in his remarks explained that the young people, who were desirous of assisting the Snowden Hall Committee, had combined their efforts and in a little more than two weeks were staging the play.
In itself, the play was of a humorous and moral character and met with the approval of the entire audience. Between the Acts candy and ice-cream was sold.
The acting and originality was so good on the part of each of the players that it would be difficult to distinguish the star actors.
The following is the cast of characters:
Rev. John West—Mr. H. A. Snow.
Mrs. West—Miss Reta Parsons.
Mrs. Sharp—Miss Mary Whiteway.
Mrs. Betterdays—Miss Clarice Wilcox.
Mrs. Seegood—Miss Florence Mercer.
Mrs. Joe Crabbe—Miss Evelyn Cave.
Mrs. Charity—Miss Myrtis Dawe.
Molly Charity—Miss Gladys Russell.
Miss Miranda Meek—Miss Nellie Snow.
Mr. Amos Right—Mr. Roy McLeod.
Jim Curtis—Mr. Douglas Norman.
Joe Crabbe—Mr. Roy Abbott.
Robert Spence—Mr. Charlie Russell.
Miss M. Whiteway and Mr. C.
Russell took double parts, as Miss Jones and Mr. Ephraim Snelgrove respectively, in the last act.
In the last scene "A Party at the Home of the Minister" the following programme was given: Chorus—By the Company.
Duet—Mrs. Whiteway and Mr. Russell—Mr. Roy McLeod.
Song—Miss Evelyn Cave.
Quartette—Misses Parsons and Whiteway and Messrs. McLeod and Russell.
Auld Lang Syne.
"GOD SAVE THE KING."

Published by Authority REGULATIONS.

TREATMENT AT PUBLIC EX-PENSE OF THE SICK CASUAL POOR.
Emergency and other cases requiring Hospital treatment were the subject of REGULATIONS recently published.
The health of those on Permanent Poor Lists is the care of Relieving Officers, under established practice.
Contagious and infectious diseases are subject of statutes and regulations thereunder, and are within the authority of Boards of Health.
The following instructions therefore, refer solely to the medical or surgical care at Public Expense, of the sick casual poor, by which term is meant, those sick persons who are unable to pay for their own care, and whose natural protectors are unable or unwilling to pay on their behalf.
Application should be made when possible without much inconvenience or suffering, to the Relieving Officer of the locality in which the sick person resides. If the Relieving Officer resides inconveniently distant, the application should be made to the Charities Commissioner at St.
John's. Application may be made by word of mouth, letter or prepaid telegram, and should give as full particulars as possible.
Application should in no case be made to Members of the Government, Ministers in charge of Public Departments, or Members of the Legislature, for it is the duty principally of the Charities Commissioner and those responsible to him to deal with all matters of this kind, and it is desirable to separate the care of the sick as completely as possible from politics.
Relieving Officers, upon the receipt of an application, if shown that the case is one which calls for aid at the public expense, should send the nearest doctor to attend upon the sick person, if much expense is not thereby incurred by reason of distance or other wise, and should forth-

C. L. B. at Port de Grave

"H" Company, Church Lads' Brigade, in charge of Capt. N. French, paraded to Port de Grave on Tuesday evening and gave an exhibition of drill and gymnastics in the Parish Hall. Several selections were rendered by the Brigade Band. Rev.
Butler acted as chairman in his usual capable manner and gave the visitors a hearty welcome.
After the exhibition, tea was served by the ladies of the Parish. Later in the evening those who enjoyed dancing proceeded to the S.U.F.
Hall, where a very pleasant evening was spent.
The boys returned home in the early hours of the morning.
