

omas F. Bayard, who in an interview... Sir John Thurston, governor of the Fiji Islands and British commissioner for the western Pacific...

MANY SORE TRIALS.

Coxey's Industrial Armies Are Not in Clover.

CONFIDENCE MEN REAPING A HARVEST

Fighting Among the Pilgrims Seem to Enliven the Walking-Talks... Wagoners Using Their Ties as Weapons That They Looked for Harvest.

Court House, Ohio, April 27.—Colonel Galvin's industrial army arrived at the court house last night. They signalled the Baltimore & Ohio east bound freight for Columbus, but were sidetracked at Mount Sterling in a very angry mood.

A VAST ARMY.

Great Numbers of Seeking Miners in Twelve States.

Minonk, Ill., April 27.—A body of miners left for Toloca to-day with the avowed purpose of driving out the men who work there. The mines there, however, have been closed and no trouble is expected.

The Anarchists.

Paris, April 27.—It is stated that Pencon is an anarchist arrested yesterday, acting as a medium for the anarchists in England and Germany and their friends in France.

The India Mint.

London, April 27.—The government will be queried on Monday in the house as to the truth of the report that it is proposed to re-open the India mints for free coinage.

Germany and Samoa.

Berlin, April 27.—A newspaper asserts that the Emperor has intimated to the minister of foreign affairs that the interests of Germany in Samoa ought not to be abandoned.

THE WORLD'S MARKETS.

State of Business as Reported From the Centres.

San Francisco, April 27.—Wheat, spot, May 107; December, 113.3-4; spot, season, storage paid, 106.7-8. Barley, easier; December, 114.

Chicago, April 27.—Wheat easier; April, 58; May, 58.1-4; July, 60.1-4; September, 62; December, 66.1-4.

New York, April 27.—Consols, 109.3-10; Bonds, 99; France, 67.1-2; C. silver, 29.1-8.

Liverpool, April 27.—Wheat quiet; California, spot, 58.1-2; off coast, 24s. 6d; just shipped, 25s. nearly due, 24s. 7d.

London, April 27.—Sugar rose one and a quarter; big trading at the opening of the market. The general list was quiet.

Nipped by the Frost.

Remo, Nev., April 27.—After two days' terrible white snow began falling last evening and reached a depth of two inches. The night was very cold. Fruit trees out in full bloom, also the berry crop are thought to be damaged extensively.

Addresses the Democrats.

Washington, April 26.—President Cleveland has forwarded the following letter to Chauncey F. Black, president of the national association of Democratic clubs:

Executive Mansion.

Washington, D. C., April 21st. To Hon. Chauncey F. Black—Dear Sir: I have carefully read the communication you have placed in my hands setting forth the future purposes and present needs of the national association of Democratic clubs.

Mr. J. Alcide Chausse.

Montreal, P. Q.

Whenever Given a Fair Trial Hood's Proves its Merit.

The following letter is from Mr. J. Alcide Chausse, architect and surveyor, No. 150 Shaw street, Montreal, Canada:

"Gentlemen:—I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for about six months and am glad to say that it has done me a great deal of good. My weight was 132 pounds, but since

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla CURES

begin to take Hood's Sarsaparilla it has done me a great deal of good. My weight was 132 pounds, but since

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.

All who are charged on behalf of the

THE LOS ANGELES.

History and Description of the Ill-fated Steamer.

San Francisco, April 27.—The steamer Los Angeles built for the United States revenue service. She was launched in the year 1866 and was christened the Wyanda. The same year the Wyanda was launched her sister ship revenue cutter Lincoln, of an equal length. The Wyanda was 107 feet in length, 27 feet 5 inches beam and had a depth from the main deck of 11 feet 2 inches.

SHUTTING OUT FARMERS.

Proposal to Exclude Them From Insolvency Bill.

Ottawa, April 27.—A meeting of the insolvency committee to-day there was a big discussion as to shutting out farmers from the operation of the act. This was done. An important amendment was made to the bill by placing farmers in the position of debtors (that is to say, a creditor can force a farmer into insolvency the same as he could traders). The bill as it stood did not permit this. Mr. Bowell, who opposed the amendment, said it might destroy the principle of the bill and therefore endanger the whole measure.

A Burglar Shot Dead.

Portland, April 26.—About 1 o'clock this morning Policeman Austin discovered a burglar in a harness store at First and Jefferson street. He called upon the man to throw up his hands, but instead of doing so he started to run. The officer then shot him through the head, killing him instantly. Nothing was found on the burglar by which he could be identified.

Fairhaven Coal for the U. S. Fleet.

Fairhaven, April 25.—President Black of the board of trade received a telegram to-day from Senator Spire confirming the report that all the vessels of the Behring Sea fleet have been ordered to take sufficient coal at Bellingham Bay to reach Unalaska, whither a supply of Commodore H. G. coal has been sent for the use of the vessels when on patrol duty. The secretary of the Blue Canyon company wired this afternoon from Seattle that he had secured the contract for coaling all the vessels, but President Larrabee, of the Fairhaven company, says he has no knowledge that the order received by his company has been revoked, and can conceive no reason why it should be, although he believes the price quoted is somewhat higher than that quoted by the Blue Canyon. He has been requested to have 100 tons ready for the Yorktown Friday, and he still expects to furnish about 1,000 tons in all.

SOUTHERN GENTLEMEN.

Two Typical Denizens of the Sultry States Fight.

Montgomery Ala., April 26.—In a duel in the drug store of E. C. Andrew in the centre of this city this morning between two prominent young professional men, Walter L. Bragg and Dr. J. F. Nafel, Bragg was killed. The trouble began last night in a street at a public speaking of Senator Morgan, where the young men were sitting close together. On account of the crowded condition of the opera house it became necessary for those who desired to see and hear the speaker to shift to and fro at times. This Mr. Bragg did. Dr. Nafel, who was sitting next to him, instructing his view and finally told him no gentleman would do it.

THE GOLDEN STATE.

Rival Steamship Companies on Panama Route Reach an Understanding.

Leonard the Bank Smasher Arraigned—Nevada's Mid-winter Exhibit.

San Francisco, April 27.—On the 1st of June there is to be another change in through freight business. As is known, the Pacific mail steamers Columbia, Newport and City of Para, on the Atlantic, have been under charter to the Panama Railway company. The charter expires on June 1st, and the Isthmian company has notified the Pacific mail company that it will not be renewed. This looks as if the Panama company were tired of the fight and proposed to throw up the sponge, notwithstanding its gallant boast to drive the Pacific mail steamers out of the waters. It means that there will be a compromise between the two companies and that the Pacific Mail will resume through freight business.

San Jose, Col., April 27.—The trial of H. M. Leonard, who wrecked the Santa Clara bank a year ago, on a charge of embezzlement of $300,000, was resumed to-day. Leonard used about $150,000 of the bank's money, and other charges are pending against him.

San Francisco, April 27.—The Alameda county celebration of the centennial of the fair to-day. The weather is perfect and the attendance was greater than on any previous county day. Exercises were held in the county building in the afternoon.

The Nevada exhibit at the Midwinter Fair will probably be closed on June 1st, owing to lack of funds, only a small amount remaining in the hands of the managers.

President Jones, of the State University here, has resigned. Dr. J. E. Stubbs of Ohio was elected yesterday by a board of regents to be president. He assumes his duties on July 1st.

A Jurer Twice Soid.

Indianapolis, April 26.—The trial of Frank and Percival Coffin and A. S. Reed of the Indianapolis Cabinet Company, for aiding T. B. Haughey, president of the Indianapolis Bank, in wrecking that institution, ended abruptly this afternoon, when the judge announced that Juror Alvin Armstrong, of Lawrence county, had been guilty of conspiracy and corruption against the government by attempting to enter into a compact with the defendants to hang the jury for a consideration of $5,000. The juror was arrested as he sat in the box, the jury was discharged and the court adjourned until next Tuesday. Armstrong, who is a farmer, agreed with his neighbors, Frank O. Stannard, of Lawrence county, to hang the jury, and Stannard opened negotiations with Coffin's attorney, asking $5,000 for Armstrong's work. A contract was drawn up. The attorneys then gave the whole thing away to the judge, turning over the contract. Stannard was arrested as he sat a delegate in the Republican state convention. He is in the firm of Stannard Bros., extensive stock raisers in Lawrence county, president of the Big Six Fair Association and secretary of the Bedford Fair and Trotting Association. He is also administrator of a big estate.

American News.

Washington, D. C., April 27.—Thos. Crumpton, colored, was hanged to-day for the murder of another negro named the Shanklin, in a drunken quarrel last June.

ROYALISTS RALLY.

Meeting of Provisional Government Opponents ON PALACE SQUARE AT HONOLULU

All the Speakers Coupled Peaceableness and Moderation with the Cause Advised Not to Vote Resolutions Adopted Declining Allegiance to the Present Government.

San Francisco, April 27.—Advices have just been received by the barkentine W. H. Diamond from the United Press correspondent at Honolulu, under date of April 11th, to the effect that the announced mass meeting of the royalists took place on the evening of the 10th inst., at Palace square. There might have been one thousand present, possibly one half natives and the rest Chinese and whites. There were five speakers, one pure native, two half white, a Canadian, Ashford, and an Englishman, he listed among the speakers quiet peaceableness, moderation and a policy of inactivity, taking no part in the voting while waiting the action of the United States in the pending protest or appeal of the Hawaiian people. Nothing was said of loyalty to the queen or of the desire to return to the monarchy.

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

Whereas, Threats of arresting such persons have been made on their entering the District of Columbia and city of Washington, therefore be it

Resolved, First, under the constitution of the United States citizens of the United States, regardless of their rank or state in life, have an undoubted and unquestionable right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for the redress of their grievances, and

THE WELSH CHURCH

The Bill to Emancipate Wales from an Intolerable Burden.

London, April 27.—Right Hon. Herbert H. Asquith, home secretary, in the house of commons last evening, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday, introduced the bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, he said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill introduced the day after yesterday,