THE SCIENCE OF REST.

(New York World.)

Mr. Russell Sage, who is just recovering from illness brought on by overwork, will soon return to Wall street. His physicians would under ordinary circumstances insist upon retiring for business for a patient 85 years old; but hard work has become to Mr. Sage second nature, and without it he would be at a loss to employ his time. He has, in a word, never learned how to rest.

This is a lesson difficult to con after middle life for strenuous Americans, yet it is even more necessary as the demands of business and professional life become more exacting. The sudden recent illness of Bishop Potter, whose cause was overwork and whose only medicament was rest, is a conspicuous example of what may happen in the prime of life to men who disregard it. There are times when men who know the danger of their conduct must overwork or see heavy interests imperilled for themselves or others, and at such times self-sacrifice is as much an act of valor and of duty as any on the field of battle. But when things are going fairly well the wise man is he who takes frequent lessons in resting until he learns the art.

St. John, June 13, 1902.

KING EDWARD

Held a Special Court at Buckingham Palace Today.

His Speech in Reply to Addresses By Lord Mayor and Corporation.

LONDON, June 12.—King Edward held a special court at Buckingham Palace today, for the reception of addresses from the lord mayor, Sir Joseph C. Dimdale, and the corporation, and from the London county council, congratulating his majesty on the restoration of peace. The king took the occasion to express his sentiments on the subject more fully than heretofore, and the tactful recognition which he made of the sterling qualities of the Boers will doubtless materially aid the work of appeasing them in South Africa. His majesty surrounded by the household, received the city dignitaries in the throne room and replying to the lord mayor's address said:

"I thank you in my own name and in the queen's for your loyal and dutiful address and the congratulations you tender us at the close of the war in South Africa. I heartily join in your expression of thankfulness to the Almighty God for the termination of the struggle, which, while it entailed on my people at home and beyond the seas so many sacrifices, borne with admirable fortitude, has secured a result which will give increasing unity and strength to my empire. The cordial and spontaneous exertions in all parts of my dominions as well as in your ancient and loyal city have done much to bring about this happy result."

"You give fitting expression to the admiration universally felt for the valor and endurance of the officers and men who have been engaged in fighting their country's battles. They have been opposed by a brave and determined effort and those who were our opponents will now, I rejoice to think, become our friends. It is my earnest hope that by mutual co-operation and good will the bitter feelings of the past may be replaced by ties of loyalty and friendship and that an era of peace and prosperity may be in store for South Africa."

Subsequently, in response to the address of the London county council, the king spoke as follows:

"I thank you for your expression of loyalty and affection towards myself and the queen. I rejoice with you at the thought that the victory which has crowned the perseverance and bravery of my forces will pave the way for the extension of the regions newly added to my empire of that system of government which, with God's blessing, will bring South Africa the peace and prosperity that have in every quarter of the globe followed its establishment. The readiness with which my subjects throughout the empire have borne their part in the arduous campaign now happily at an end, cannot fail to draw them still more closely together in the bonds of loyalty and affection, and I confidently believe that the good feeling which is being displayed by those who were so recently our opponents augurs well for the future of that vast country which has been added to the dominions of the crown."

CANADIAN NEWS.

Voters at 48—Clargue's Big Contract—The Pacific Cable.

(Special to the Star.)

VICTORIA, B. C., June 12.—The legislature yesterday extended the provincial franchise to young men of eighteen years. The proposal to enfranchise women was defeated by a vote of 15 to 12.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., June 12.—The Clargue steel plant has booked orders from the government and Canadian railways for a hundred thousand tons of steel rails. Its output will be increased next Monday from five hundred to six hundred tons daily.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 12.—Mr. Reynolds, chairman of the Pacific Cable Board, who is here, reports Norfolk Island, Queensland and New Zealand all connected by cable and the lines kept busy. He expects the whole work to be completed about the end of November next.

KILLED HIS MAN.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Niles Brewsters is dead and John Kuhn occupies a cell at the central police station as the outcome of a fight in the kitchen of a well known downtown restaurant. Both men were employed as assistant cooks, and quarrelled over the possession of a kettle. A war of words ending in Kuhn's seizing a big butcher knife and plunging it into the side of his opponent after he had been hurled against a steel range and had his head cut. Brewsters died while being taken to the county hospital.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Charles S. Shavler, secretary and treasurer of the American Distance Telephone Company in this city for many years, was arrested today as the direction of District Attorney Jerome. He is accused by the company of peculations for half a dozen years, amounting to between $16,000 and $17,000. The case was referred to the grand jury.

SURRENDERS TOTAL 12,000.

LONDON, June 12.—It was announced here today that 890 Transvaal Boers surrendered yesterday, bringing the total of surrenders for all the colonies up to about 12,000.

TALES OF THE SEA.

An American Gunboat's Experience in the Pacific.

Two Sailors Lost From a Steamer—Fall River Liner Disabled.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 12.—The gunboat Manila arrived from Manila last night in distress. She was picked up off Point Bonita and towed into port by the United States tug Slocum. The Manila had aboard a crew of ninety-seven men, ten officers and eighty-four marines. On June 1 the Manila's high pressure piston broke. On June 4 a storm came up and blew the sails to pieces. The vessel lay in the trough of the sea beyond control from 4 a. m. to 3 p. m. The engine was finally started and headway was made by the ship. Then the steering gear got out of order and the vessel turned with a heavy sea aft. When the gear was repaired and the ship brought to a position of comparative safety, she was 1,100 miles from this port, outside the track of vessels. The course was set for San Francisco and the vessel run with the low pressure engine. Good weather was met with until June 10, when a stiff gale came upon the vessel and was forced to lie to twenty-four hours. All sails that were repaired were set. Yesterday afternoon the U. S. weather observer at Point Reyes sighted the Manila and the Slocum was sent to her assistance.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The steamer Heckla, which arrived last night from Scandinavian ports, reports that on June 1, north of Scotland, Philip Carlsson, a fireman, jumped overboard and was lost. It is supposed he was temporarily insane. The same day Jens P. Hansen, another fireman, was struck on the head by a falling ash bucket. He died from his injuries and was buried at sea. The passengers made up a purse for the benefit of the last named man's widow and family.

HANSEN HANGED.

Disgraceful Trafficking in Tickets of Admission to See the Execution.

(Special to the Star.)

MONTREAL, June 12.—Thorvald Hansen was hanged in the jail yard here this morning at 8:05 o'clock, for the murder of Eric Marotte of Westmount. Radcliffe was the hangman.

MONTREAL, June 12.—At the execution of Thorvald Hansen, the arrangements were carried out by Hangman Radcliffe without a hitch. A large crowd had been admitted to witness the hanging and the tops of houses and factories in the vicinity of the gallows were crowded with people who were able to get a view of the murderer's end. Hansen, who had spent most of the night in prayer, attended by a Jesuit priest, never faltered, having expressed himself as fully prepared for the ordeal. His neck was broken by the fall and apart from a few twitches of the body there were no signs of life after the legal act had been committed consigning the man to eternity. A great deal of comment was caused by the traffic in tickets of admission to the execution, which was notable about the goal gate prior to the hanging. There seemed to be considerable numbers of tickets offered all the way down from a dollar to sixty cents. Where all the tickets came from may be a subject of inquiry.

ROOSEVELT AND CUBA.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—President Roosevelt will send a message to congress today on the subject of Cuban reciprocity. The message will clearly state the president's views on the subject and will advocate the reduction plan.

DYNAMITING THE FISH.

(Boston Globe.)

As though seines and traps and other devices of greed were not enough to deplete the supply of fish to the people, the practice of killing fish with dynamite, outside as well as within the three-mile limit, along the shores of Maine, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, has come to reach alarming proportions.

Were all the fish that are killed in this way gathered up and consumed there might be some excuse for it, but many have been only stunned, not killed, and have either gone to the bottom or drifted helplessly ashore. Many others that have suffered from the shock, but were not killed, have since been caught on the trawls of legitimate fishermen and found to be in an unhealthy condition. Many of these diseased fish, however, are cured with the others and are passed on to consumers through the channels of trade.

Both the American and dominion governments have become aroused to the seriousness of this growing evil, which carries far enough might drive most of the fish from American waters and leave the rest diseased. Cheap fish is among the greatest boons of a nation. Shall greed be suffered to finally cheat the people out of it?

A CLEVER PUN.

On one occasion Lord Kelvin, then Professor Thompson, left Glasgow to receive the honor of knighthood. A substitute professor named Day took duty for Sir William. He amply satisfied the students. When Sir William returned as the new knight some one had written on the board: "Work ye while it is called the Day, for the knight cometh, when no man can work!"

About 40 per cent of the men employed in the Minnesota mines are Finlanders, another 40 per cent. Hungarians, about 1 per cent. Italians, and the rest are divided among Americans, Germans, French, Scotch, Welsh and Cornish.

KILLED THEM ALL.

U. S. Major Waller Says the Philippine Revolution

Can Only Be Put Down By the Severest Measures—Upholds Gen. Smith.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 12.—Major L. W. T. Waller, United States Marine Corps, by far the most interesting personage to reach here on the transport Warren, which brought the battle-scarred remnant of the fighting Ninth Infantry into port, expressed emphatic views in the matter of the war in the Philippines.

"You can't stop the revolution in the Philippines unless you take the severest measures," said Major Waller in an interview. "You would hate to see your wounded and dead mutilated. I cannot describe the fearful condition in which we found some of the bodies of men under my command who were murdered by insurgents. I received both verbal and written orders from General Jacob Smith to kill all insurgents who were caught armed or who refused to surrender."

"It was the only thing that could be done, and I never questioned General Smith's orders with one exception. This exception I refuse to state. A fair estimate of the number of natives killed by the men of my command would be four to five hundred."

"These were all killed in battle with the exception of the 11 carriers, insurgents, with Hart, who were tried by court martial and shot. There was only one woman shot and she was only slightly wounded. She happened to be in the breastworks of a fort my men were storming."

His dark eyes snapped and his nostrils twitched at the mention of the Island that General Jacob H. Smith had ordered him to convert into a howling wilderness.

"I left Samar a howling wilderness. They tried to make it that for us, but I made it a howling wilderness for them."

"Want any more of it?" "Oh, I'm getting to be an old man now." His face relaxed. "I'm in my fifties. Besides, they've surrendered and it's all over. It's always all over when they surrender in the Philippines," and a sarcastic smile curved under his military moustache.

QUIETER TODAY.

Militia and Police Clear the Streets of Pawtucket.

PAWTUCKET, R. I., June 12.—The militia who are assisting the local authorities here to maintain order, owing to the street railway strike, cleared the streets today of all debris, some of which had been placed on the tracks to hinder traffic. The street railway company was notified by General Tamm, in command of the troops, that the lines were unobstructed and preparations were made to send out cars.

The spirit of the irresponsible elements to whom yesterday's turbulence is attributed, seems to have subsided. There is a strong feeling among all of the citizens against the deputy sheriffs who have discharged fire arms during the strike. The feeling towards the militia is more friendly.

Mayor Fitzgerald called on Gov. Kimball today to have the militia withdrawn. He considers its presence as contributing to disturbances. He says he will guarantee protection to the cars.

"The officers on their beats, together with the specials, can protect the road," he said.

The first car run from Providence was without guards on board. The troops lined the streets along the route. Five arrests were made by the soldiers. Some stones were thrown and the drivers and conductors were hissed, but the outbursts were quelled by the soldiers.

THE COAL STRIKE.

The Tie-Up in West Virginia Is Nearly Complete.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 12.—For the first time this week, there was no strike demonstration at the Lehigh Valley Company's colliery at Durea today. The efforts of the miners' leaders to have their men keep the peace were successful. The attempt to shoot a division superintendent of the Lehigh Valley Co. caused the company to get extra coal and iron police about the colliery has conspicuous places today. It is the company's intention to take no more chances of having its employees injured.

Last night an attempt was made to start the pumps in the collieries of the Susquehanna Coal Company at Nanticoke, but the engineers quit work almost in a body. There is a very large number of armed coal and iron police in the vicinity.

President Mitchell said today that the strike was complete. He repeated his assertion, that the suspension in West Virginia is nearly complete.

IN THE SUNNY SOUTH.

NEW ORLEANS, June 12.—As the result of a fight in this city last night between Sicilians, three men are dead and two others, charged with murder, are seriously wounded. The difficulty was the outcome of an old feud existing between the two factions of the Sicilian race in this city.
