THE FAST LINE.

Board of Trade Will Discuss It Tomorrow Afternoon.

A meeting of the council of the board of trade was held in the board room this morning. Routine business was transacted and this was followed by an interesting discussion of the proposed fast line service. The council passed a resolution which will be submitted to a full meeting of the board of trade to be held tomorrow afternoon. The resolution was in support of the memorial which is being forwarded by the common council.

Every member of the board of trade is requested to attend tomorrow's meeting, as the discussion is an important one.

The three horse hitch made by the Perkins Co., of Lawrenceville, Mass., for the aerial truck, was brought to the city by the Penobscot on Saturday. Until the extra horse is secured the double hitch will remain in use.

BADLY HURT.

Pile of Lumber Fell on Six

Years Old Albert Parks.

His Head Badly Crushed and It Is Feared He Will Not Recover.

Albert Parks, the six-year-old son of L. Dow Parks, 55 Military Road, was badly, probably fatally hurt, shortly before one o'clock today, near Elm street school, by being struck with a falling pile of lumber. Young Parks attended the Elm street school and takes dinner at his grandmother's on the same street. While returning to the school after dinner he was passing a lumber pile on which a number of boys were playing. The pieces started and the whole pile fell over on the boy crushing him to the ground. Sergt. Hastings was sent for and with the aid of several others, the injured boy was removed to the hospital. It was found that his head was badly crushed and the body bruised. He was taken to his grandmother's and Dr. W. A. Christie was sent for. Later he was taken to the hospital. Another boy was also hurt but not severely. Young Parks has only been out of the hospital but a short time where he and his brother were treated for diphtheria. The brother succumbed to the disease.

But a few days ago a little girl named Price had an arm broken by a similar accident at the same place.

SALE OPENS TOMORROW.

The MacLachlan Concerts Next Week

Promises to Delight Opera House

Records.

It is more than probable that the appearance of Miss MacLachlan and Harry McCloskey at the Opera House next week, under the management of F. C. Spencer, will be the brilliant climax of a tour that has been phenomenally successful. In every town in Nova Scotia the story of record breaking houses and most enthusiastic audiences is repeated and those who heard Miss MacLachlan in Halifax, during her visit two weeks ago, positively assert that her voice is fifty per cent. better than when here before. She has a whole host of new, bright songs and the great successes of previous visits will probably be given also. The eager anticipation regarding the concert is shown by the way in which the Opera House is daily besieged in an effort to obtain tickets, though announcement was made that seats would not be put on sale until Tuesday October 7. The plan will open tomorrow morning at ten o'clock and no seats can be had before that hour.

DEATH OF EDWARD McDONALD.

Word was received in the city this morning of the death of Edward McDonald, the well known butcher and meat dealer, of 113 Brussels street, who went to the general hospital in Montreal about a month ago to undergo an operation for an internal trouble.

The news of Mr. McDonald's death will be learned with regret by a very large circle of friends and acquaintances, for he has been in business in the city for 55 years. He was 67 years old, and leaves a widow, four sons and four daughters. The daughters are Mrs. A. Moriarty, of East Boston; Mrs. Walsh, widow of John Walsh; Mrs. Edward Walsh, and Miss Laura McDonald, all of this city. The sons are Edward, Thomas, James and John, all living in this city.

Mr. McDonald's remains will be brought home for burial.

GEO. FOWLER, M. P.

In an interview with the Sun published this morning George W. Fowler, M. P., gave an interesting account of the tour of Mr. Borden and party in the west. Mr. Borden, he says, is making a magnificent impression in the west.

Don't worry about the west politically," said Mr. Fowler. "Unless the liberals wake up and do some miracles in the next year or so there will come in a tide of protest from that country that will wash them, at the next election, utterly from the political landscape. Just watch the west."

DUTY OF PARENTS.

In Centenary church last night, drawing a lesson from the condition of juvenile morals recently revealed in this city, Rev. G. M. Campbell preached an admirable sermon, in which he insisted upon the necessity of home training for the children if society was to be bettered.

He spoke of the condition lately laid bare in St. John, and in closing emphasized the need of early religious training in the home and pressed upon the church and school their obligation to inculcate high ideals as well as education.

DR. BAYFIELD IN TOWN.

Dr. T. F. Bayfield, who at the time of the smallpox epidemic was one of the resident physicians in the hospital, is spending a few days in the city. Since leaving St. John Dr. Bayfield has been over no small part of the world as physician on one of the Elder Dempster boats. He has recently been ill with typhoid, but is now all right.

TRIED TO ROB A CHURCH.

The burglars are working in all parts of the city. Last week some of the fraternity entered the church of St. John the Baptist, Broad street, and endeavored to pry open a private desk in the church. Something prevented them from accomplishing their object. They were evidently after the contents of the poor box.

DR. STOCKTON.

A letter from Dr. Stockton, received today, states that he is doing very nicely and expects to be able to resume work again by the first of November. The citizens will learn with universal pleasure of his recovery. He is spending a few days quietly in Boston before returning home.

BOYS AND BEER

Come Up for Discussion Before the Evangelical Alliance.

Supt. Perkins Advises Members to

Take Off Their Coats and Help

Clear Out Beer Shops.

The boy and how to save him was the question before the Evangelical Alliance this morning. The members discussed the matter quite freely, and compulsory education and public play grounds were suggested as remedies for the existing state of affairs in the city. Eben Perkins, superintendent of the Portland Rolling mills, sent a letter to the alliance in which he strongly denounced beer shops as being in nine cases out of ten more injurious than the bars, and advised the clergymen if they wished to clear the moral atmosphere to get off their coats and go to work.

There was quite a large attendance of members at the meeting over which Dr. Fotheringham presided. Rev. J. C. B. Appel acted as secretary. After the session had been opened the secretary read the following letter addressed to the members of the alliance:

Gentlemen,—I note that you meet this morning to discuss The Boy Problem. Now, if I may make a suggestion from a business standpoint you have to my mind overlooked the most potent factor in this matter. What the boys need is your assistance in creating such conditions as will save them fairly free from temptation for six days out of each week, and these obtained, no further enactment of Sabbath legislation will be necessary as the conditions thus produced will enable them to tide over the one day—Sunday—towards which your efforts seem now to be directed. For example in your anxiety to suppress the sale of soda and cigars on the Sabbath you actually have overlooked the fact that at all hours during the week day and night, your boys are facing a standing invitation to the saloons, in the innocent beer shops of the city.

The excuse that this condition can be attributed to the court and police is not a reason to positively deny. The court and police are both like yourselves servants of the public and governed largely by public opinion in their actions. Now, if you are prepared to work as well as pray, you can immediately close ninety per cent. of the beer shops in the city, and I tell you from a long personal experience that their effect on the boys is immediately greater than all the barrooms. The latter, few boys—and I speak of the average boy—care to enter, the former, where he is supposed to obtain non-alcoholic liquors only he has no hesitation in visiting, and what he does drink there is in nine cases out of ten not only intoxicating but vastly more injurious to his system than pure liquor sold over the bar. Now, if you really want to clear the moral atmosphere, why not get off your coats and go to work.

This is only one direction for your energy, and there are many, but is not this a good place to start. The time is now opportune, and I can not only offer my feeble assistance, but can from my experience guarantee the honest, hearty co-operation of His Honor Judge Ritchie and the police of the city. If you want to know how call me up any time.

Yours very truly,

EBEN PERKINS.

When the letter had been read Rev. B. N. Nobles, of Carleton, said that it was a matter of regret that such situations should be cast upon the members of the alliance. They had done considerably more than pray. He was of the opinion that it was a weakness of the writer to attack clergymen.

So far as the letter and its contents were concerned, the incident was not new. Rev. C. T. Phillips suggested that an article in a late number of the Sunday school times on the Boy Problem be taken as a text for the morning's discussion. The article in question was read by the secretary and advocated strongly closer relationship between the religious bodies and the municipal authorities in working for the boy.

The chairman asked Rev. Mr. Deinstadt to give the points brought out in a paper recently read by him on the question before the meeting. Mr. Deinstadt stated that the things which he considered detrimental to the moral and physical youth were the liquor habit, formation of clubs in parks and alleyways, and the cigarette habit.

Rev. B. N. Nobles said the causes of vice were well known. It was remedied by seeking for, and as one suggested public playgrounds for the boys.

Rev. H. H. Roach emphasized the same point and the necessity of proper training in the homes.

Rev. C. T. Phillips thought the first cause of depravity was in the home and also suggested public play grounds and compulsory education, with free school books for those unable to buy them.

Rev. Mr. Stevenson thought the conditions here were not so terribly alarming, compared to other places; but the evil should be struck at the root. He advocated church, education and a house to house visitation of those homes not cared for by any denomination.

The time for adjournment having arrived, the discussion was cut short at this stage. A committee consisting of Revs. Dr. Wilson, H. F. Waring and Dr. Fotheringham were appointed to draw up a programme for the coming season, and the public discussion of the boys' welfare is dropped for the present.

THE CARNIVAL BAND.

The band of the 5th Royal Garrison Regiment, thirty-five men, will attend the St. John carnival and give seven programmes from Wednesday to Saturday night.

This band is considered one of the best in the British army, and while the regiment was stationed at Aldershot was the one most sought after for all the big events. Seven concerts will be given here during carnival week, and the people will be given an opportunity to hear what is probably the best band in Canada.

A BAD FALL.

Yesterday afternoon about two o'clock, a little son of George Lobb, about a year old, residing at 216 Waterloo street, fell from a window to the ground, which was of a clayey nature, a distance of 22-2 feet. The child was leaning against a screen, which gave way. Strange as it may appear, no bones were broken, but the little fellow is quite sore.

PILING IT UP.

The Police Court David and Jonathan Find Another Javelin of Discord.

On Saturday evening, a young married woman was arrested on Charlotte street for drunkenness and locked up. She was later released on the personal order of Police Magistrate Ritchie, who went with her husband and made a deposit of $5.00. Officer McLaren said that his orders were not to allow anyone out on the magistrate's order, but the magistrate undertook to stand between him and all harm.

The woman did not appear in court this morning, and the deposit of $5.00 was forfeited.

The magistrate's action has given rise to no small amount of comment in police circles, and while it is not denied that he acted within the authority given him by law in discharging the woman, yet objections are made by the police.

Deputy Jenkins told the Star today that since Chief Clark has taken charge of the police force there has been a standing order to the effect that no prisoner may be released from custody excepting by the chief of police or, in his absence, by the deputy. The chief claims that he is responsible for all prisoners, and that the magistrate has no authority to dispose of them until they are brought before him. Often it happens that persons who are wanted on a more serious charge are arrested for drunkenness in order that they may be detained in custody until the case against them is completed. In these cases it is unwise for them to be let out upon payment of a few dollars.

When the woman was arrested on Saturday night she was very drunk, and was unable to stand. About five minutes afterward, application was made for her release, but Deputy Jenkins would not permit it. He failed to see the fun in releasing a person who was just as drunk as when the arrest was made, but promised to consider the matter after the woman had been given a few hours in which to sober up. Then he was called out on duty and on his return found that the prisoner had been let go by the magistrate.

A case similar to this occurred a short time ago and Officer McLaren was instructed by the chief not to let it happen again.

HELPING THE BOYS.

Rev. W. O. Raymond Has 52 of Them in Boys' Brigade.

In the matter of work among the boys of St. John, one clergyman at least is taking an active part and is meeting with much success.

Two or three weeks ago Rev. W. O. Raymond undertook the organization of a boys' brigade in connection with St. Mary's church, and although it has only been started such a short time, it has now an enrolled membership of no less than fifty-two. The brigade meets in St. Mary's church schoolroom on every Tuesday evening at half past seven o'clock. It is the intention of those in charge to equip the boys with uniforms and guns as soon as possible, but in the meantime they are being drilled in every way possible without this equipment. Richmond Dooe is instructor, and in his work he has the hearty interest of the boys.

C. P. R. ACCIDENT.

Traffic on the St. Stephen branch of the C. P. R. was interrupted on Saturday. The morning train for St. Stephen left the rails near Moore's Mills, the accident being caused by a broken brake bar. Seven cars of lumber and freight were thrown off and considerably damaged, the road bed also being somewhat torn up. The morning train going out from St. Stephen was delayed over an hour and transfers were made at the scene of the accident during the day. No person was injured.
