Continued from Page 1. So I took her down to Long Island near some lots I did not let her see the land. She wouldn't come to terms and I told her then that I was all ready married, and had a child I loved, that I was tired of her and wanted to go back to my wife.

Gebhardt, when he was in Germany, bought two German police dogs and Miss Luther by training the dogs that the detectives found his home in Astoria. While a newspaper photographer changed a flashlight at the dogs, the hare revealed the pale face of Gebhardt peering from the shadows of an outhouse. He was run down and arrested.

Search of the house discovered a quantity of household effects and women's finery marked "A. L." Gebhardt had told his wife he bought them at a sale of unclaimed trunks in Germany. Identification of the jewelry worn by the woman was made in the office of Carl Geist, German Consul General, by Henry Werpupp, of Newark, N. J., as the property of Mrs. Anna Luther Mueller.

At Wedding. Werpupp, who identified the jewelry, was a witness at the wedding of Miss Luther and Otto Mueller. Before he saw the trinkets found on the body of the Islip victim he gave a description of the jewelry worn by Miss Luther on her wedding day.

Dr. Ludwig V. Sattler, a veterinary surgeon of Newark, who has just returned from Europe, told a story yesterday of having visited the parents of Mrs. Otto Mueller when he was in Germany about a month ago.

Dr. Sattler said he and the father of the woman were old friends, and while traveling in Germany he hunted him up. In the course of their conversation the parents spoke of the mysterious silence on the part of their daughter, and they both said they were of the opinion that she had been killed. The father told Dr. Sattler that neither he nor his wife had heard from their daughter since she was visiting them, a short while after her marriage.

PRaised NEGRO RACE IN OPENING ADDRESS AT ST. PHILIP'S FAIR

George Robertson Speaks Of High Standing Of Colored People In States - Booths Have Many Attractions.

St. Philip's A. M. E. church bazaar opened very auspiciously last evening. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather there was quite a large attendance.

The speaker referred to the high position occupied by the Negro race in the United States, and exhorting the women of the race for their sterling qualities of thrift in the home, and for their Christian tender and kindly spirit.

The speaker claimed that the Negro had been handicapped in the past, but that by good example, education and hard endeavor he would not be content with the same plane as the white race.

She soon discovered the loss of the jewelry and on her investigation found that the jewels had been taken. The police were notified and the arrests were made today. Part of the jewels were found on the prisoners. They are Italians.

Special to The Standard. Annapolis Royal, Oct. 25.—The present season promises to be a banner one in the apple export trade from Annapolis Royal. Already one steamer has sailed for this port for England carrying over ten thousand barrels of apples.

Another steamer which will carry about the same number is loading now at the wharves and is to follow. The first shipment returned excellent prices. F. C. Whitman is managing the shipments and this year expects a great deal more than he has had in previous seasons.

CLAIMS INSANE WOMAN SHOULD BE SENT TO STATES

Mary Ann Lamont Refused Admission Yesterday - Had Return Ticket And Lived 14 Years In Boston.

Special to The Standard. Boston, Oct. 25.—Detective W. J. Conroy, of the Boston Police Department, today refused admission to the United States of a woman who jumped from a moving train at Grand Bay on Friday evening last, suffering from an attack of insanity, and who was brought back to the city.

She was examined by the U. S. Immigration officers yesterday and as a result they refused to pass her across the border. She has been removed to the Provincial Hospital and will remain there pending the receipt of word from her mother and sister who live in Boston.

The St. John authorities contend that the Immigration inspectors have no right to refuse the woman admission to the United States as she had lived in that country for fourteen years and had gone to Cardigan, P. E. Island only six weeks ago for a visit. She had in her possession the return half of a ticket from Boston.

The booths and tables presented an attractive appearance and the ladies in charge had evidently devoted much time and energy with the decorations. A What-Does-it-Lack Picture

NO. 3—'HUBBY'S DISCOMFITURE.'

Certainly in this picture hubby shows that he is flabbergasted, not to say deeply alarmed. Wife has him at bay, so to speak, and he looks as if he would faint.

But this is a 'What-Does-it-Lack' picture, and a certain thing is wanting to make Mr. Jorkins betray so much emotion. Merely a threatening little fist wouldn't make him throw up his hands and cry for help, would it? The artist failed to put into the picture something to make the holdup convincing.

MRS. PANKHURST IS GIVEN BIG RECEPTION

Carnegie Hall, New York, Crowded To Hear Militant Suffragette Leader - Girl Collegians Much In Evidence

New York, Oct. 25.—Rarely has Carnegie Hall seen such a gathering of women as assembled there tonight to welcome Mrs. Eileen Pankhurst, the British militant suffragette and to proclaim their own right to vote.

Though the meeting had been announced for 8.15 the hall was crowded long before that hour and more than 1,000 were turned away. The girl collegians in cap and gown was much in evidence, while on the stage a forest of banners proclaimed the women's organizations represented. The flag of Wyoming, the first state to grant women the suffrage, hung facing the stage and the ushers wore orange colored shoulder sashes, bearing the familiar legend "Votes for Women."

Honolulu, Oct. 25.—Fifty supposed lepers out of the first one hundred examined by physicians at the island of Molokai have been declared non-lepers and probably will be freed.

The examination was made and a resolution passed by the last legislature and the astounding results of the first five score of cases has caused hope to run high in the hearts of the 85 outcasts in the settlement.

The examining physicians declared that these 85 never had the disease and that others certainly were not lepers now, since searching bacteriological examinations have failed to reveal any trace of the scourge.

EXTENT OF OPERATIONS SHOWN IN EVIDENCE

Thoroughness With Which American Ice Company Gobbled Up Iced Concerns Demonstrated.

New York, Oct. 25.—The thoroughness with which the American Ice Company, on trial for attempted restraint of trade, is alleged to have done its work of gobbling up independent companies, was shown today by deputy state's attorney General Osborne, who read a list of the business purchased by I. O. Blake, at one time a branch manager for the company.

The independent companies were of varying size, the assets of some of them consisting of nothing more than a single horse and wagon. Most of the agreements signed with these independent companies provided cash penalties if they engaged in the ice business in New York during a period of ten years. The penalties varied in amount from $250 to $750,000.

The name of Charles W. Morse, the convicted financier, was frequently mentioned in today's proceedings, and the name of Augustus C. Sprague, the mysterious person who received $5,000,000 from the company "for value received" also figured in the testimony.

NICHOLAS MANAGES TO MAKE GRACEFUL EXIT

Russian Ruler Undisturbed In Leaving Italy—Double File Of Troops Guard Railway Line.

Racconigi, Oct. 25.—After two days as the guest of King Victor Emmanuel, Emperor Nicholas left here at 3.15 o'clock this afternoon. He took an affectionate farewell of the King and the Queen, the former accompanying him to the railway station. All along the route troops were drawn up in double file, and the same precautions were taken to guard the railroad line to the Italian frontier.

The Russian emperor's departure from Racconigi was undisturbed. He said, "wishes to see her old friend the Princess of Montenegro and the great country of which she became Queen."

The Italian frontier was reached in safety and before proceeding the Emperor sent a telegram to the King again thanking him for his splendid reception.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE IN ANNUAL SESSION

Continued from Page 1. Millstream, Westmorland and Kent at the city of St. John, and Lorneville, and the National Division, and officers and trust the time is not far distant when we will have more district divisions throughout the province. A lot of excellent work can be done through this medium.

The official correspondence connected with this office has been quite large and I have to take great pleasure in keeping in touch with the membership through this medium. I am glad to hear of any ruling of the constitution, showing that everything is working in harmony.

National Division. As your representative I had the pleasure of attending the meeting of the National Division held in the city of Worcester, United States, in July, and met a large number of faithful temperance workers, who took great delight in our work and in using the working of our glorious order. By the journals of this Grand body you will be able to know the amount of work accomplished at the session. While at the meeting on behalf of the Grand Division I invited that august body to hold their next annual session in St. John. We are glad to know the invitation was accepted, and we believe that the gathering next July will be beneficial to the order in the province. We feel highly honored in having the presence of the Most Worthy Patriarch, John C. Thomas, Past Grand Worthy, on this occasion, believing in having the head of the order with us it will stimulate us to greater efforts. In September last our noble order celebrated its centenary, and the founding of this institution in North America as well as other places. The members of the order in St. John marked the occasion by a public gathering.

New Divisions. New Divisions were organized during the year at Centerville, Carleton Co.; Beaver Harbor, Charlotte Co.; Smithtown, Kings Co.; Nauwigewauk, Kings Co.

Thanks. I wish to thank the Grand Scribe, Bro. Hamilton, for the very great help to me during the year. He was always ready and willing to do anything to aid the work along and was very prompt in answering all correspondence. I also desire to offer my best thanks to the Grand Officers and members of the order for the kindness shown me during the year, and trust the order will still increase and we will return to our respective homes determined to use all our power to advance the best interest of our institution and for the extension of the temperance cause.
