Weapon Found Effective in Fights With Automobile

Chicago, May 23.—Substitution of the shotgun for the rifle is the latest development in man-hunting by the Chicago police. The time-honored rifle squad has given way to the oump-gun squad.

The reason for the change was thus outlined by Michael Hughes, chief of

"In close-range fighting the pumpgun is much the more efficient weapon, for within ninety feet of the objective it has a spread of four feet.
Each shot carried nine rounds of lean, corresponding in size to that in a 38
calibre revolver bullet.

"In street fighting, also, the chances of hitting the innocent bystander are greatly minimized by the use of the
