

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHSAY

Rothsay, Nov. 28.—The "club" home is being built on Long Island, opposite...

The Misses Fairweather, Mr. Shide, have returned home from a visit to New York...

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Paul F. Blanchet was hostess at a very pleasant bridge...

This afternoon Mrs. Blanchet is entertaining a few happy children, friends and...

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Blanchet were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tilley, St. John, and after...

Miss P. P. Foster, who has been visiting friends in St. John, has gone to Fredericton for a few days.

Mrs. R. E. Paddington has returned to Rothsay after a pleasant week spent with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bannister, St. John.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Paul F. Blanchet was hostess at a very pleasant bridge of four tables with a few other guests...

This afternoon Mrs. Blanchet is entertaining a few happy children, friends and her little daughter, Helen. The guests are...

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Blanchet were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tilley, St. John, and after...

Miss P. P. Foster, who has been visiting friends in St. John, has gone to Fredericton for a few days.

Mrs. R. E. Paddington has returned to Rothsay after a pleasant week spent with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bannister, St. John.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Paul F. Blanchet was hostess at a very pleasant bridge of four tables with a few other guests...

This afternoon Mrs. Blanchet is entertaining a few happy children, friends and her little daughter, Helen. The guests are...

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Blanchet were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tilley, St. John, and after...

Miss P. P. Foster, who has been visiting friends in St. John, has gone to Fredericton for a few days.

Mrs. R. E. Paddington has returned to Rothsay after a pleasant week spent with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bannister, St. John.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Paul F. Blanchet was hostess at a very pleasant bridge of four tables with a few other guests...

This afternoon Mrs. Blanchet is entertaining a few happy children, friends and her little daughter, Helen. The guests are...

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Blanchet were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tilley, St. John, and after...

The chaparrons were Mrs. W. H. Steves, Mrs. J. H. Calder, Mrs. T. C. Allen, Mrs. M. McNeil, Mrs. A. T. McMurray, Mrs. M. G. Alcorn.

Very general regret is expressed on all sides at the departure of Major Doull and family for Quebec, where Major Doull has been transferred.

The Misses Beverly will hostess at a bridge of nine tables on Tuesday afternoon. The prize winners were Mrs. R. D. Hanson and Mrs. C. Fred Chestnut.

Mrs. W. H. Steves was the hostess of a very pleasant evening at the home of Mrs. L. G. Steves, when Mrs. Lizzie was the prize winner.

Mrs. W. A. McNeil entertained at the tea hour on Sunday in honor of Mrs. Doull.

Mrs. W. H. Steves is visiting Miss Helen Morrison, having come up for the school dance at the Queen hotel last evening.

Mrs. Helen Morrison was hostess at a girls' drawing room tea on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. K. Morrison.

Mrs. W. H. Steves is visiting Miss Helen Morrison, having come up for the school dance at the Queen hotel last evening.

Mrs. Helen Morrison was hostess at a girls' drawing room tea on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. K. Morrison.

Mrs. W. H. Steves is visiting Miss Helen Morrison, having come up for the school dance at the Queen hotel last evening.

Mrs. Helen Morrison was hostess at a girls' drawing room tea on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. K. Morrison.

Mrs. W. H. Steves is visiting Miss Helen Morrison, having come up for the school dance at the Queen hotel last evening.

Mrs. Helen Morrison was hostess at a girls' drawing room tea on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. K. Morrison.

Mrs. W. H. Steves is visiting Miss Helen Morrison, having come up for the school dance at the Queen hotel last evening.

Mrs. Helen Morrison was hostess at a girls' drawing room tea on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. K. Morrison.

Mrs. W. H. Steves is visiting Miss Helen Morrison, having come up for the school dance at the Queen hotel last evening.

Mrs. Helen Morrison was hostess at a girls' drawing room tea on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. K. Morrison.

Mrs. W. H. Steves is visiting Miss Helen Morrison, having come up for the school dance at the Queen hotel last evening.

Mrs. Helen Morrison was hostess at a girls' drawing room tea on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. K. Morrison.

Mrs. W. H. Steves is visiting Miss Helen Morrison, having come up for the school dance at the Queen hotel last evening.

At a thimble party at her home last Thursday afternoon. Among those present were Mrs. A. E. Clark, Mrs. A. E. Johnson, Mrs. Chas. Sargeant, Miss McCallister, Miss Harrison, Miss Marjorie David, Miss Richardson, and others.

Mr. Charles Rankin and Mrs. B. Hillon left last Saturday on a visit to friends in Charlottetown (P. E. I.).

Mr. Howard Williston returned last week from a pleasant visit spent with friends in Amherst (N. S.).

Miss Lucy Lingley returned last Saturday from a pleasant visit with her grandparents in Chatham.

Miss Sarah Miller entertained a number of her friends very pleasantly at the tea hour last Thursday evening.

Mr. John Taylor spent several days of his vacation at St. John.

Mrs. E. H. Sinclair was hostess at an informal dance at her home at Bridgetown Thursday evening in honor of her guest, Mr. Ernest Clark, who has been in St. John for the past few weeks.

Mrs. J. H. Phinney for the past few weeks, returned Monday morning to her home at Amherst (N. S.).

Mrs. Dennis Doyle entertained a few friends very pleasantly last Friday evening.

Mr. Walter Koy Johnson, of Loggieville, spent the week-end in town, the guest of Mrs. A. E. Shaw.

Mrs. John W. Miller left on Monday morning for Boston, where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. Jas. Falconer's many friends regret to hear of her serious illness.

Miss Daniel McQuarrie returned yesterday from a pleasant visit with friends in St. John.

Misses Margaret Robinson, Pinkie Ingram and Rev. W. R. Robinson returned last week from a most enjoyable hunting trip to the mountains at Beaver Brook.

Mr. Victor Cousins is the guest of his parents, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Cousins, at the parsonage.

Mr. Charles Ramsey and daughters, Mrs. Douglas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Beulah, to J. Raymond Burpee, of Gibson, York county.

Mr. Charles Ramsey and daughters, Mrs. Douglas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Beulah, to J. Raymond Burpee, of Gibson, York county.

Mr. Charles Ramsey and daughters, Mrs. Douglas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Beulah, to J. Raymond Burpee, of Gibson, York county.

Mr. Charles Ramsey and daughters, Mrs. Douglas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Beulah, to J. Raymond Burpee, of Gibson, York county.

Mr. Charles Ramsey and daughters, Mrs. Douglas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Beulah, to J. Raymond Burpee, of Gibson, York county.

Mr. W. T. Denham, B. A., of St. John, has been engaged as principal of Woodstock (P. E. I.) school. He is a graduate of Acadia, 1906—Honour graduate of St. John school, 1902, and has been principal of Kingston Consolidated school and at present principal of Kent county Grammar school, Woodstock.

Mr. Denham was on the school staff here a few years ago, and his many friends will be pleased to hear of his promotion.

Miss George, of Sackville, is in town, the guest of Mrs. George Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hanington, who have been spending some time in Moncton, returned to St. John on Monday, accompanied by Miss Newman, of Moncton.

Miss Louise Allen was in Amherst on Tuesday.

The engagement has been announced of Mrs. W. H. Irving, of Moncton, for the wedding of the winter months in Moncton and since that time has been for some days the guest of Mrs. W. A. Ward in town, left on Wednesday upon her return to the island.

Mrs. Clarence Purdy and baby daughter, of Moncton, who have been guests of Mrs. W. H. Irving, returned to Moncton last week, and are present at the home of Mrs. Purdy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Inglis.

Miss Regina Lavoie, who has been teaching in the school at St. John, spent the week-end in town the guest of her mother, Mrs. S. Lavoie.

Mrs. C. H. Galland has returned from a short week in Moncton, where she has been spending some time with her husband returned some months ago from the Japan mission fields, spent a few days in town recently, the guest of Mrs. L. M. Irving, and a few weeks ago accompanied her brother, Dr. Robert Monahan to his home in Minneapolis and entered an hospital there, in spite of the most skillful treatment, she passed away on Monday, Nov. 27, at the home of Mrs. Monahan as well as in her old home in Elmville.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Mary Agnes Harding, of Regina, to Rev. Archibald Clement Calder, formerly of Weymouth, the ceremony to take place Wednesday morning at St. Paul's church, St. John.

Mrs. Frank Smith and son Dean, of Moncton, returned home Monday night after spending a couple of days with Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. H. H. Smith, who was also in town over Sunday.

Miss Hazel Tait returned on Friday last from spending a pleasant fortnight with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Tait, at her home in New Brunswick.

Miss E. Dolohy, of Memramouc, who has been visiting with Mrs. Thomas Gallagher during the past few weeks, is returning home on Monday.

Miss Jennie Webster, who is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. F. J. White, of Moncton, was the guest for a few days of Mrs. W. A. Ward.

A very enjoyable little fancy work party was given on Tuesday evening of this week by Mrs. Eric Robitoux in honor of Miss Beatrice H. Dunlop, of Moncton.

Miss Anna Avaré returned last week from a short week in Moncton, where she has been spending some time with her husband, who is in the hospital there. Both are expected home this week. Mr. Gaudet is very much improved in health.

Mr. W. R. Robinson, of St. John, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. John Robinson, at her home in St. John.

Mrs. Walter Morrell returned last week from a pleasant visit with friends in St. John.

Mr. D. J. Buckley returned last Saturday from Montreal.

Rev. Mr. Tschader's many friends are pleased to hear that he is convalescing from a serious illness.

Mr. W. T. Denham, B. A., of St. John, has been engaged as principal of Woodstock (P. E. I.) school. He is a graduate of Acadia, 1906—Honour graduate of St. John school, 1902, and has been principal of Kingston Consolidated school and at present principal of Kent county Grammar school, Woodstock.

Mr. Denham was on the school staff here a few years ago, and his many friends will be pleased to hear of his promotion.

Miss George, of Sackville, is in town, the guest of Mrs. George Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hanington, who have been spending some time in Moncton, returned to St. John on Monday, accompanied by Miss Newman, of Moncton.

Miss Louise Allen was in Amherst on Tuesday.

The engagement has been announced of Mrs. W. H. Irving, of Moncton, for the wedding of the winter months in Moncton and since that time has been for some days the guest of Mrs. W. A. Ward in town, left on Wednesday upon her return to the island.

Mrs. Clarence Purdy and baby daughter, of Moncton, who have been guests of Mrs. W. H. Irving, returned to Moncton last week, and are present at the home of Mrs. Purdy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Inglis.

Miss Regina Lavoie, who has been teaching in the school at St. John, spent the week-end in town the guest of her mother, Mrs. S. Lavoie.

Mrs. C. H. Galland has returned from a short week in Moncton, where she has been spending some time with her husband returned some months ago from the Japan mission fields, spent a few days in town recently, the guest of Mrs. L. M. Irving, and a few weeks ago accompanied her brother, Dr. Robert Monahan to his home in Minneapolis and entered an hospital there, in spite of the most skillful treatment, she passed away on Monday, Nov. 27, at the home of Mrs. Monahan as well as in her old home in Elmville.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Mary Agnes Harding, of Regina, to Rev. Archibald Clement Calder, formerly of Weymouth, the ceremony to take place Wednesday morning at St. Paul's church, St. John.

Mrs. Frank Smith and son Dean, of Moncton, returned home Monday night after spending a couple of days with Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. H. H. Smith, who was also in town over Sunday.

Miss Hazel Tait returned on Friday last from spending a pleasant fortnight with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Tait, at her home in New Brunswick.

Miss E. Dolohy, of Memramouc, who has been visiting with Mrs. Thomas Gallagher during the past few weeks, is returning home on Monday.

Miss Jennie Webster, who is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. F. J. White, of Moncton, was the guest for a few days of Mrs. W. A. Ward.

A very enjoyable little fancy work party was given on Tuesday evening of this week by Mrs. Eric Robitoux in honor of Miss Beatrice H. Dunlop, of Moncton.

Miss Anna Avaré returned last week from a short week in Moncton, where she has been spending some time with her husband, who is in the hospital there. Both are expected home this week. Mr. Gaudet is very much improved in health.

Mr. W. R. Robinson, of St. John, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. John Robinson, at her home in St. John.

Mrs. Walter Morrell returned last week from a pleasant visit with friends in St. John.

Mr. D. J. Buckley returned last Saturday from Montreal.

Rev. Mr. Tschader's many friends are pleased to hear that he is convalescing from a serious illness.

Mr. W. T. Denham, B. A., of St. John, has been engaged as principal of Woodstock (P. E. I.) school. He is a graduate of Acadia, 1906—Honour graduate of St. John school, 1902, and has been principal of Kingston Consolidated school and at present principal of Kent county Grammar school, Woodstock.

Mr. Denham was on the school staff here a few years ago, and his many friends will be pleased to hear of his promotion.

Miss George, of Sackville, is in town, the guest of Mrs. George Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hanington, who have been spending some time in Moncton, returned to St. John on Monday, accompanied by Miss Newman, of Moncton.

Miss Louise Allen was in Amherst on Tuesday.

The engagement has been announced of Mrs. W. H. Irving, of Moncton, for the wedding of the winter months in Moncton and since that time has been for some days the guest of Mrs. W. A. Ward in town, left on Wednesday upon her return to the island.

Mrs. Clarence Purdy and baby daughter, of Moncton, who have been guests of Mrs. W. H. Irving, returned to Moncton last week, and are present at the home of Mrs. Purdy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Inglis.

Miss Regina Lavoie, who has been teaching in the school at St. John, spent the week-end in town the guest of her mother, Mrs. S. Lavoie.

Mrs. C. H. Galland has returned from a short week in Moncton, where she has been spending some time with her husband returned some months ago from the Japan mission fields, spent a few days in town recently, the guest of Mrs. L. M. Irving, and a few weeks ago accompanied her brother, Dr. Robert Monahan to his home in Minneapolis and entered an hospital there, in spite of the most skillful treatment, she passed away on Monday, Nov. 27, at the home of Mrs. Monahan as well as in her old home in Elmville.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Mary Agnes Harding, of Regina, to Rev. Archibald Clement Calder, formerly of Weymouth, the ceremony to take place Wednesday morning at St. Paul's church, St. John.

Mrs. Frank Smith and son Dean, of Moncton, returned home Monday night after spending a couple of days with Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. H. H. Smith, who was also in town over Sunday.

Miss Hazel Tait returned on Friday last from spending a pleasant fortnight with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Tait, at her home in New Brunswick.

Miss E. Dolohy, of Memramouc, who has been visiting with Mrs. Thomas Gallagher during the past few weeks, is returning home on Monday.

Miss Jennie Webster, who is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. F. J. White, of Moncton, was the guest for a few days of Mrs. W. A. Ward.

A very enjoyable little fancy work party was given on Tuesday evening of this week by Mrs. Eric Robitoux in honor of Miss Beatrice H. Dunlop, of Moncton.

Miss Anna Avaré returned last week from a short week in Moncton, where she has been spending some time with her husband, who is in the hospital there. Both are expected home this week. Mr. Gaudet is very much improved in health.

Mr. W. R. Robinson, of St. John, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. John Robinson, at her home in St. John.

Mrs. Walter Morrell returned last week from a pleasant visit with friends in St. John.

Mr. D. J. Buckley returned last Saturday from Montreal.

Rev. Mr. Tschader's many friends are pleased to hear that he is convalescing from a serious illness.

MONCTON

Moncton, Nov. 28.—Dr. S. W. Burgess and Mrs. Burgess have returned from New York where the doctor was attending the Congress of Surgeons.

Mrs. E. Tiffin has gone to Ottawa to spend a few weeks and later will be the guest of her daughter at Preston (Ont.).

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Baldwin are spending a few days in Chatham, the guests of Mrs. M. Kelly.

Miss Emma Thomas, of Norwich (Conn.), is the guest of Mrs. J. A. Fraser.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crandall announce the engagement of their niece, Grace B. Harris, to Dr. Harry Thompson, the marriage to take place December 4.

Dr. L. H. Price and Mrs. Price have returned from New York where the doctor was attending the Clinical Congress.

Mrs. L. W. Bourque is the guest of relatives at Shediac.

Miss Marjorie McCarthy, who is attending the Ladies' College at Sackville, spent the week-end at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, of Charlottetown, in the city for a few days, the guest of Mrs. John W. McDonald.

Rev. H. E. Thomas, of St. John, spent the week-end in the city, the guest of Rev. J. L. and Mrs. Batty at the Methodist parsonage.

Miss Marjorie Robinson, who is a student at the Ladies' College at Sackville, spent Sunday at her home in the city.

A marriage of interest to many young friends was solemnized at Grand Caspédia (Que.) on Friday, when Miss Veronica Gertrude McArdle of this city, bride, was united to Mr. Edgar Wadman, groom, by Rev. J. Edgar Wadman.

The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Michael McArdle, of New York, and wore her travelling gown of taupe velvet.

A reception was held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Wadman, a sister of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Wadman were in Moncton on Monday on a short week-end trip and after enjoying a few days here will make their home in Grand Caspédia.

Many friends sympathize with Rev. D. M. Burns, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian church, who was suddenly stricken to death on Saturday evening of the death of his brother, Dr. Angus MacOdrum.

P. J. Burns, returned to her home in Newcastle during the week.

Miss Agatha Melanson has returned from a short visit to Campbellton.

Mrs. J. H. D. Storer left for her home in Dalhousie this week, she is making a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bishop.

Miss Wollie, of Douglastown, made a short visit to her sister here last week.

BORDER

St. Stephen, N. B., Nov. 28.—The handsome F. Todd was the successful bride party.

The Calais ladies, with friends who are devoted to the cause of the poor, have been very successful in their efforts to bring home to the parish a large quantity of potatoes.

Carleton Lodge, N. B., has been very successful in their efforts to bring home to the parish a large quantity of potatoes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crandall announce the engagement of their niece, Grace B. Harris, to Dr. Harry Thompson, the marriage to take place December 4.

Dr. L. H. Price and Mrs. Price have returned from New York where the doctor was attending the Clinical Congress.

Mrs. L. W. Bourque is the guest of relatives at Shediac.

Miss Marjorie McCarthy, who is attending the Ladies' College at Sackville, spent the week-end at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, of Charlottetown, in the city for a few days, the guest of Mrs. John W. McDonald.

Rev. H. E. Thomas, of St. John, spent the week-end in the city, the guest of Rev. J. L. and Mrs. Batty at the Methodist parsonage.

Miss Marjorie Robinson, who is a student at the Ladies' College at Sackville, spent Sunday at her home in the city.

A marriage of interest to many young friends was solemnized at Grand Caspédia (Que.) on Friday, when Miss Veronica Gertrude McArdle of this city, bride, was united to Mr. Edgar Wadman, groom, by Rev. J. Edgar Wadman.

The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Michael McArdle, of New York, and wore her travelling gown of taupe velvet.

A reception was held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Wadman, a sister of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Wadman were in Moncton on Monday on a short week-end trip and after enjoying a few days here will make their home in Grand Caspédia.

Many friends sympathize with Rev. D. M. Burns, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian church, who was suddenly stricken to death on Saturday evening of the death of his brother, Dr. Angus MacOdrum.

P. J. Burns, returned to her home in Newcastle during the week.

Miss Agatha Melanson has returned from a short visit to Campbellton.

Mrs. J. H. D. Storer left for her home in Dalhousie this week, she is making a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bishop.

Miss Wollie, of Douglastown, made a short visit to her sister here last week.

Miss Wollie, of Douglastown, made a short visit to her sister here last week.

ST. GEORGE

St. George, Nov. 28.—Mrs. Arthur Robinson came from Windsor (N. S.) last week to spend the holiday season with her husband, who is manager for Clark & Lewis, Charlottetown (P. E. I.).

Mrs. Alex. Milne left on Saturday last to make her home with her son, Mr. Gideon Milne in Hartford (Conn.).

Mr. Johnston, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, St. John, and his wife, Mrs. Land Lee, came through by auto on Saturday evening Sunday with Capt. and Mrs. Charles Johnston.

Mrs. Thomas left on Saturday to visit her son and his family in Eastport (Me.).

Mrs. Henry Goss and daughter, Miss Lee, were in Charlottetown this week, guests of Mrs. Richard Knox.

Miss Wallace, who has been spending several months with her niece, Mrs. H. R. Lawrence, has returned to her home in Albert county. Miss Wallace has many friends during her visits to St. George and is always sure of a warm welcome.

Mrs. C. C. Alexander is in St. John this week.

The Citizens' Band concert came off on Wednesday evening in Court's Hall. The leader, Mr. George McCallum, organized the affair which was an exceptionally enjoyable and successful one.

FREDERICTON

Fredricton, Nov. 28.—Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Carter entertained at dinner on Thursday evening, when covers were laid for ten.

Master Waldon Carter entertained the "not Outs" at a dance on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Steves gave a double bridge on Friday evening (ten tables), the prize winners being Mrs. A. T. McMurray and Mr. Alcorn, first, with Mrs. George Taylor and Mr. Rainsford Watson getting the consolation prizes.

The Misses Beverly were hostess at a bridge of four tables on Friday afternoon, when Mrs. Shute and Miss Holden were the prize winners. Those present were Mrs. Shute, Mrs. Frederick Bains, Mrs. W. S. Thomas, Miss Burchell (Sydney), Miss Lynch, Mrs. Harold McMurray, the Misses Kathleen and Jessie Hodge, Misses Marjorie Masters, Miss Kathleen Holden, Miss Dorothea Thompson, Miss Valerie Steves, Mrs. Frank Shute (Yarmouth), the Misses Hazel and Zillah Edgcomb, Mrs. Shilton.

Mrs. A. Slipp will entertain at luncheon on Friday in honor of Mrs. Doull.

The bachelors of Fredericton were the hosts last evening at a ball at the Queen hotel, when about 150 guests were present. A programme of fifteen dances and three supper extras was enjoyed. Bridge was provided for those who did not care to dance. A larger number of married couples than usual were present and enjoyed each other.

Newcastle, Nov. 27.—Miss Davidson was hostess at an informal bridge last Saturday afternoon at her home on Pleasant street.

Mrs. Osborne Nicholson entertained a number of her lady friends very pleasantly at a thimble party at her home last Thursday afternoon. Among those present were Mrs. A. E. Clark, Mrs. A. E. Johnson, Mrs. Chas. Sargeant, Miss McCallister, Miss Harrison, Miss Marjorie David, Miss Richardson, and others.

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, Nov. 27.—Miss T. Dwyer, teacher in Upper Dorchester, was in town on Saturday.

Mr. Justin McGrath, of Charlottetown, Rydals, spent Saturday in town, the guest of his father, Mr. H. McGrath.

Those who attended the concert, The