

HILL 60 STRUGGLE

An Inferno of German trenches

Eighty Under a Hill of Fire

Themselves Under Terrible Raged Four and a Half Miles—Desperate Counter Assault Repulsed With Terrific Losses sets and sandbags disappeared," says tributing the effect of the explosions of back and capture by the British of Hill No. 60, the "Eye-Witness" says.

time, allied the trenches with dead bodies and so cumbered the approach to the front line that reinforcements could not reach it without having to climb over the prostrate forms of their fallen comrades."

The desperate efforts of the Germans to recapture the hill, the "Eye-Witness" says, "probably were due not only to the intrinsic value of the position, but the fear of personal consequences to the general command if they failed to hold it."

"Mother."

I'm gittin' old—I know— It seems so long ago— So long since John was here!

I know I'm gittin' old— It seems so long ago— From time 'at first frost flies, Seem like—since John was here—

And yet, it seems, some days, John's here with his old ways, Comes soon-like from the corn-field, callin' "Mother" at me—like he called me that—

When Jim come—John says 'e— A-bendin' over me— And baby in the bed—

And cried jes like a child— Kissed me again, and smiled, 'Cause I was cryin', too— And here I am again, 'A-cryin' same as then—

That's his way; but of John Was here now, lookin' on, 'He'd shovely know and see, 'But, 'Mother, 's'pect he's say, 'S'pose you air gittin' gray, 'You're younger yet than me!"

I'm gittin' old—because Our young days, like they was, 'Keeps comin' back so clear, 'At little Jim, once more, Comes Mistin' 'tross the floor, 'Fer John's old rockin'-cheer!"

O beautiful—to be A-gittin' old, like me! Hey, Jim! Come in now, Jim! Your supper's ready, dear! (How more, every year, He looks and acts like him!)

NEWFOUNDLAND TO VOTE ON PROHIBITION NEXT NOVEMBER

St. John's (Nfld.), April 28.—In the colonial legislature last night the premier announced that the government intended to introduce a bill during the session providing for a plebiscite next November on the question of prohibition of the liquor traffic, and in the event of the temperance policy winning the colony will become dry on July 1, 1916.

AGENTS WANTED

RELIABLE representative wanted, to meet the territory throughout New Brunswick fruit trees throughout New Brunswick at present. We wish to secure three or four good men to represent us as local agents.

THERE is a boom in the sale of trees in New Brunswick. We want reliable agents now in every unrepresented district.

TEACHERS WANTED

WANTED—Teacher for district No. 16, Castaway, Queens County; second class female of female to teach school anytime. Apply to George R. Fulton.

WANTED—At once, second class teacher to commence duties immediately after the Easter vacation. Apply, stating salary, to Daniel Sullivan, St. John's School Trustees, Kouchibouguac, Kent Co., N. B. 2675-4-10

HELP WANTED

WANTED—A middle aged couple to work a small farm in the vicinity of St. John. A good place for the right couple. Apply with references to Box 25, care of Telegraph Office.

WANTED—A maid for cooking and general housework, no washing; references required. Apply to Mrs. David D. Roberts, 2622-4-24-w.

WHEN PEACE COMES WILL YOU BE READY?

Wise men tell us that Times will be brisker and opportunities greater than ever before.

Now is the time for preparation. Send for our Catalogue.

BIRTHS

APPLEBY—To the wife of F. D. Appleby, Champlain street, West St. John, on April 23, a daughter.

MARRIAGES

MORLEY-AUSTIN—In St. John (N. B.), April 21, 1915, by Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, D.D., Albert V. Morley, of Halifax (N.S.), to Susan Louise Austin, of Chatham (N. B.).

ISTEY-JONAH—In St. John, on April 23, John Franklin Isteley, of Dunsmuir, York, to Susan Louise Austin, of Chatham (N. B.).

DEATHS

BABCOCK—At her late residence, 118 Simons street, on the 24th inst., Rosella T. widow of George Babcock, aged 71 years, leaving one son and three daughters to mourn.

FORSTER—On April 6, 1915, Anna Whittall wife of Thomas Forster, daughter of Forster, Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services on Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock at her late residence, 911 DeLisle street, North-west (Pa.) Interment private.

ELLS—In Louisiana, suddenly, Albert Ellis, formerly of this city, leaving father, two brothers and three sisters to mourn.

MACAULAY—In this city on April 21, Douglas Clarendon Macaulay, aged 29 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Macaulay, 229 Grand street, leaving father, mother, one brother and two sisters to mourn.

MORGAN—In this city on the 21st inst., at 80 Vihart street, Rebecca L. beloved wife of William W. Morgan, leaving her husband, three daughters, father, mother, one brother and two sisters to mourn.

SMITH—At St. John West, on April 20, Mrs. E. Smith, aged 76 years, leaving his wife, three daughters and one son to mourn.

COTTER—In this city on April 21, Elizabeth Kathleen, youngest daughter of Richard J. and Elizabeth Cotter, aged 18 years.

TERIS—In this city, on the 23rd inst., Ruth Connors, youngest daughter of Joseph and Ellen Teris, aged 18 months.

QUIRK—In this city on the 22nd inst., Mary A. wife of Edward Quirk, leaving husband and one daughter to mourn.

ARMSTRONG—In this city, on April 24, at the residence of his parents, Henry Frodoe Armstrong, aged 11 months, son of William and Annie F. Armstrong, leaving three brothers and one sister to mourn.

CALDWELL—At her residence, 118 Simons street, on the 24th inst., after a short illness, Margaret Caldwell.

PATERSON—On Saturday, the 24th inst., David Paterson, aged 76 years, leaving three sons and two daughters.

NO DEVELOPMENTS IN C. R. STRIKE AS YET

Halifax, N. S., April 28.—There are no new developments in the proposed strike of the employees of the Intercolonial Railway. A. R. Mosher, president of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees is now in the city, having come to the city to meet Mr. Mosher.

AMHERST AND THE GERMAN PRISONERS

(Amherst Guardian.) Three hundred and fifty German prisoners of war reached Amherst on Saturday evening and are now interned at the detention camp at Malabar Iron Works.

The prisoners came by train from St. John under a guard in charge of Captain Harry Adams, of Halifax. The train pulled in a few minutes before 6 o'clock, and was watched by a crowd of interested spectators as it ran slowly through the station. The Germans, who were much excited, seemed in good spirits and as much interested in the onlookers as the latter in them.

The train ran past the station without stopping. At the iron works the men detained and marched into their quarters where they will be under the charge of a guard commanded by Major Oulton, of Springfield, and Captain J. H. Sprout, of Fredericton.

Practically all the prisoners are understood to be marine officers and sailors. Some of them are survivors of the fight off the Falkland Islands. Others were sunk by a German auxiliary cruiser off the coast of West Africa, and some were African coast early in the war. For some time past they have been detained on the island of St. Lucia. They were brought from St. Lucia under charge of Captain Adams on a vessel which reached St. John on Saturday.

The original intention was to bring some 500 prisoners but it was found that the vessel could only accommodate 350, and even then, it is said, the guard and the crew had to be content with uncomfortable quarters.

Diets at St. Regis. Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

Some of the prisoners found life at Amherst fairly pleasant on Saturday evening. Sixteen or so of them were allowed to march to the St. Regis Hotel and enjoy dinner there. Quite naturally, the incident has caused a good deal of comment and there are many people who fall to understand why German prisoners should be so well treated when British officers in Germany have recently been placed in solitary confinement. "No one asks that the Germans here shall be given any harsh treatment," said one man to the Guardian, "but allowing them to go to a hotel seems to me like a little too much of a good thing."

PRESENTATION TO DEAN SCHOFIELD

Fredericton, April 28.—Last evening at Church Hall the congregation of Christ church cathedral gathered, the occasion being one to bid Dean and Mrs. Schofield farewell and extend to them good wishes of all in taking up their field of labor in the west. The large rooms were completely filled. Mrs. Richardson, the Countess of Ashburnham and Mrs. G. W. Allen acted as a reception committee.

A. J. Gregory read an address, which referred to the great regret the congregation felt at losing the Dean and Mrs. Schofield, the happy relations which had always existed among them in the past; the dean's seven years' work at the cathedral and especially as regards duties that involved upon him in its restoration after the fire.

Bishop Richardson said that the next duty would be executed by the chancellor. Dr. T. C. Allen then made the presentation of a beautiful silver platter, handsomely engraved, the inscription being under the monogram of Dean and Mrs. Schofield. "Presented to Dean and Mrs. Schofield by the congregation of Christ church cathedral, Fredericton (N. B.), April 28, 1915."

Dean Schofield, in reply, referred to his work in Fredericton and his kindly relations that had existed in the past. He felt that had it had come to him now for the third time must be accepted. The cathedral was in every way, he was glad to say, in a most satisfactory condition, and this, he hoped, was no doubt, knew, it would continue. There was now a wider field open for him to work in, and he felt that he would be striking his duty if he refused to obey the call. He thanked the congregation for their kindness and he would ever remember the happy seven years spent in Fredericton.

Mrs. Schofield also thanked the gathering. His lordship, in closing, referred to the kindly feeling that had ever been between the dean and himself. He spoke of the dean's work in the past in this diocese, and the following address, which was very much, at the conclusion of the bishop's speech refreshments were served by the young ladies of the congregation in a successful evening brought to a close.

At the closing exercises of the Nova Scotia Agricultural College, Truro, F. Leslie Wood, of Carter's Point, K. C. N. B., was awarded the governor-general's medal for highest standing in the senior year, as well as a silver cup, presented by Percie Johnson, of Newfoundport, for the best judgment of dairy cattle.

Approximately $20,000 worth of property was destroyed Friday night when office and warehouse of St. Peter's Sons, Ltd., grain merchants, Peters wharf, were gutted by fire. But for the fact that the entire building was covered by a fire insurance policy, it would be difficult to tell where the fire would have stopped. To add to the protection of the adjoining properties there was a stout fire hose, which was being used and the wholesale liquor store of W. B. McIntyre, Ltd., Water street.

Eighty-four prisoners are at present confined in the county jail, nearly one-third of whom are women. During the last few months there has been a marked increase in the number of female prisoners. During the year 1914 there were fifty-seven female prisoners, out of which number 17 were convicted. Since the beginning of the year 1915, up to April 22, there have been thirty-one women arrested and the majority of these have been placed in jail on bail or conviction or in other institutions.

Socks kept on coming to Mrs. E. Atherton Sunday all day Friday from individuals of the highest standing in the division of E. Island, Montreal and the United States, so that with those taken at the soldiers' sock social the day before, the total number of pairs of socks of the Women's General Patriotic League of Moncton reported 600 pairs. The Lord Dorchester Chapter I. O. O. E. U. is the top-off of the regiment and the ladies of Campbell street in three dozen pairs. The largest individual donor was Mrs. Burden, of Lope Water street, who has donated 400 pairs of beautifully made socks. The money receipts from the social, in addition to the socks which formed the admission fee for the total, amount to $100.00. Being well now go on rapidly and in this way the ladies of the Royal Standard Chapter, O. E. U. U. are helping to help the war in which the soldiers are so helplessly as the Germans are. They should all be hanged after the war is over and scattered all over the face of the earth. They are mad.

"We are having a stiff time of it, I assure you. We were supporting on the left flank at Neuve Chapelle, we were held. Although we did nothing, we could hear and see it. It was awful; we were so killed. We (the Canadian division) were ready to attack on our part but did not get the order to charge. We were lying about eighty yards from the German trenches. The old country troops did all the chawing, and they are truly magnificent soldiers."

Supreme Court Appeal Judgments Next Friday

Fredericton, April 28.—The supreme court appeal bench adjourned this afternoon, after giving judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

CONDENSED NEWS; LOCAL AND GENERAL

The citizens of Gibson and St. Mary's have decided to put the matter to popular vote whether they should not amalgamate and become incorporated.

Chatham Commercial: Among the successful candidates to pass the Massachusetts State Board of Medicine during the past week, was Robert J. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams of this town.

Four heroes, members of the famous Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, arrived at Halifax on Saturday on the Allan liner Hesperian which docked here last night. Passengers of the Hesperian said that all the returned members of the Princess Patricia's had been severely wounded in action and that two of the soldiers had each lost a right eye.

Mrs. E. A. Smith, regent of the Royal Standard Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, has received a check for $100 from the Women's Institute of Campbellton, with instructions to forward it to Colonel Shillington to procure two more beds for the New Brunswick ward in the Canadian hospital near Bologne, France. The amount will be forwarded at once.

After a service of more than forty years with the I. C. R. W. R. Payne, station agent at Newcastle for the last ten years as retired from active service early next month. Mr. Payne spent most of his long railway career as station agent at Bathurst, taking the position almost at the opening of the line in 1873-1874, and continuing until he was promoted about ten years ago to the more important post at Newcastle.

Arthur J. Boddington, aged 45 years, a longshoreman, was killed while working on the steamer Marina of the Donalson Line, at No. 4 berth, Friday morning at 9 o'clock. The unfortunate man was struck by a load of flour and was knocked from the end of the runway into the hold of the vessel, falling a distance of more than 40 feet. He was killed almost instantly.

At the closing exercises of the Nova Scotia Agricultural College, Truro, F. Leslie Wood, of Carter's Point, K. C. N. B., was awarded the governor-general's medal for highest standing in the senior year, as well as a silver cup, presented by Percie Johnson, of Newfoundport, for the best judgment of dairy cattle.

Approximately $20,000 worth of property was destroyed Friday night when office and warehouse of St. Peter's Sons, Ltd., grain merchants, Peters wharf, were gutted by fire. But for the fact that the entire building was covered by a fire insurance policy, it would be difficult to tell where the fire would have stopped. To add to the protection of the adjoining properties there was a stout fire hose, which was being used and the wholesale liquor store of W. B. McIntyre, Ltd., Water street.

Eighty-four prisoners are at present confined in the county jail, nearly one-third of whom are women. During the last few months there has been a marked increase in the number of female prisoners. During the year 1914 there were fifty-seven female prisoners, out of which number 17 were convicted. Since the beginning of the year 1915, up to April 22, there have been thirty-one women arrested and the majority of these have been placed in jail on bail or conviction or in other institutions.

Socks kept on coming to Mrs. E. Atherton Sunday all day Friday from individuals of the highest standing in the division of E. Island, Montreal and the United States, so that with those taken at the soldiers' sock social the day before, the total number of pairs of socks of the Women's General Patriotic League of Moncton reported 600 pairs. The Lord Dorchester Chapter I. O. O. E. U. is the top-off of the regiment and the ladies of Campbell street in three dozen pairs. The largest individual donor was Mrs. Burden, of Lope Water street, who has donated 400 pairs of beautifully made socks. The money receipts from the social, in addition to the socks which formed the admission fee for the total, amount to $100.00. Being well now go on rapidly and in this way the ladies of the Royal Standard Chapter, O. E. U. U. are helping to help the war in which the soldiers are so helplessly as the Germans are. They should all be hanged after the war is over and scattered all over the face of the earth. They are mad.

"We are having a stiff time of it, I assure you. We were supporting on the left flank at Neuve Chapelle, we were held. Although we did nothing, we could hear and see it. It was awful; we were so killed. We (the Canadian division) were ready to attack on our part but did not get the order to charge. We were lying about eighty yards from the German trenches. The old country troops did all the chawing, and they are truly magnificent soldiers."

Supreme Court Appeal Judgments Next Friday

Fredericton, April 28.—The supreme court appeal bench adjourned this afternoon, after giving judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.

In the case of Clark vs. The St. Croix Paper Co., the appeal was dismissed with costs. The appeal was taken by the defendant, after judgment in one case. Adjudgment was until Friday next when judgments will be given in several cases.