ST. JOHN, N. B., APRIL 9, 1912.

Postal Reform.

The Montreal Gazette, of a recent date, has a sensible article on this subject. It favors the free delivery of letters, holding that "what is needed to meet the requirements of the public is not the whole cost of the postage of a letter from the time it leaves the hand of the sender to the time it reaches the hand of the recipient. It should be defrayed by a so-called 'scientific postage.' As this is what the people of St. John have been asking for many years past, the following facts from the Gazette will interest many of our readers.

The present arrangement entails an enormous waste of time and space. It is estimated that one hundred thousand persons a year visit the post offices to send letters, that the value of time so wasted is six million dollars a year, and that the money lost which is expended on the delivery of letters is one million dollars. In addition to this, the inconvenience suffered by the public is very great. The letters mailed on the previous day are delivered much more than would be the case were the letters delivered in the morning. As to the present arrangement, it is only necessary to point out that the present method of delivery of a letter is to deliver it to the door of the recipient. It is not necessary to say that this is a very inconvenient method of delivery, in St. John and Portland it is unworkable; it has been pressed for years, and yet it has not been possible to secure even this small instalment of fair play for a large commercial community, while the slightest demand of any country newspaper increases mail expenditures to a large extent. It is in a district which probably already yields half a cent of postage to every dollar of expenditure, if only presented in a menacing tone receives instant attention. In the English towns there are several houses to house delivery daily, all free; here in St. John—where the population of the non-paying mail routes of the Province—it is impossible to get the authorities to entertain such a proposition. There are ten thousand inhabitants interested in having a Post Office administered near the centre of business; the authorities will not give them such accommodation, but, instead, insist on the whole body of the population paying carriers two cents on each letter or paper delivered to them. There is scarcely another people who would stand such nonsense and loss.

The Gazette, like the Dominion Board of Trade, desires to see the Department made responsible for the safe transmission of Registered Letters. It also refers to the question of Sunday labor in the Post Office. It would appear that in Quebec Sunday deliveries prevail; and notwithstanding the demand of certain religious people for the cessation of such labor, a Royal Commission, appointed to enquire into the subject, sees strong reasons for not abandoning the arrangement. There are some among us who would like to see the St. John Post Office opened on Sunday in case of the arrival of delayed mails on that day, and these quote the same of the Telegraph Office, which is never closed. It seldom happens, however, that there are cases of sufficient urgency to require a departure from the present regulations; when such occur, the Postmaster should be at liberty to open the Post Office for a Sunday delivery if he deems it advisable. That subject, however, may be left to the care of itself, while we press upon the authorities once more our demand that free delivery be instituted in St. John without delay.

Shall the Loafers Rule?

Last year, during summer evenings, the loafing element took possession of the sidewalks of this city in all the principal promenades. These gentlemen and youths of leisure masked themselves at the corners or ranged themselves in rows at other points along the walks. Here they chatted in their own free and easy slang; passed indecent remarks on ladies, and besetted their garments with tobacco stains or other filth. Here they gave vent to the gross blasphemy in which too many of our youth are prone to indulge, and in other ways made themselves nuisances in the opinion of all respectable persons and a terror to the more timid of the fair sex.

The Police Force of this city was repeatedly called upon by citizens and by the Press to interfere in favor of decency, but their efforts, if they were put forth, were without appreciable result. The loafers and scamps held their ground, and decent people continued to be insulted to the end of the season. It was generally believed, however, that, from some cause or other, the Police paid but little attention to the evil. The fact certainly remained that, under their eyes, the nuisance assumed large dimensions and continued to expand rather than decrease, until the fall and winter weather, kinder than the Police Force, drove the loafers to spend their evenings under cover.

Spring is now opening, and presently there will be pleasant promenades, and all classes will turn out in the evenings to enjoy their walks and visits as is customary in the milder months. Already the loafers are "putting in an appearance" at the street corners, especially in King and Charlotte streets, without interference from the Police. The question comes up, Are the scores to be permitted again this year to annoy the audience and speech to be continued, to the scandal of our city? The Chief of Police should be prepared to answer now that we may know what to expect. He should take the public into his confidence and tell them the cause of his inaction of last year, and say whether the Force is to be equally inactive this year. We indicate the evil; let the Chief tell us once for all whether or not there is a remedy, and whether that remedy will or will not be applied.

The Parisians are great lovers of the Theatre, and play going is their great recreation and aim in life. The theatrical managers never err on the sensational side—the Parisian public is never shocked with the extra tragic. One would suppose poor Paris had seen enough of the terrible slaughter, "through the streets, and blood, and slaughter, the noise of artillery, the shrieks of the dying. But, strange to say, a play called "Daniel Robin" has just been produced at the Chatelet, in which the Parisians are treated fresh to all the horrible incidents of the mercenary stage through which they have just passed. A critic describes it as "full of patriotism, spouting, and fighting. The scene is chiefly laid in a besieged city, the inhabitants of which are in a state of starvation. Wounded men die in 'to slow made. The action is enlivened by the roll of drums, the bel low of cannon, and—this last is one of the great 'realistic sensations' of the drama—the rattle of shells. The French soldiers with great relish on the excellent of this nature. The theatres of gunpowder sometimes fill the air, and is lighted to an angry glow by lurid fires of strontium. In the streets, the soldiers are seen in blood and stripes, and is filled to overflowing with ghastly pictures of strife, of death, and of death."

Charming Ladies.

Now that Alaska with all its treasures is open to the world, it is not surprising that the attention of the public has been attracted to a British Columbia paper, our sisters at Sitka wear a body dress of a superior quality of fur and silk, arranged to suit the taste of the western. The married ladies all wear silver rings in their noses and wear their lower lip, while elderly ladies add to their dress a little of the "upper lip." Their amusements are dancing, singing, and playing cards. The law of divorce is rendered necessary in Alaska. From a habit they have gotten married for a limited number of months, the consideration for which is paid in furs, furs, and old junk. [Alaska Evening Times.]

Political.

Walter Shanly, Esq., M. P., an eminent Civil Engineer and a high authority on Railways, and as a gentleman greatly esteemed by all parties in Parliament, has been again nominated by the Conservatives of Prescott.

Hon. William McDougall, M. P., meets his constituents to-morrow, to consult with them about the choice of a candidate for the Conservative seat of Ontario.

Says "William's position just now is very indefinite." We don't think so. He has declared in favor of the Washington Treaty, and has just come out in favor of independence. What more reasonable man can there be?

Presbyterian Union.

The Presbytery of Montreal in connection with the "Canada Presbyterian Church" has just given a deliberation on the subject of a general union of the principal Presbyterian bodies in the Dominion. It decides a Union desirable on many grounds. It approves generally of the four articles of Union agreed to by the General Assembly of the Church in November last, but desires embodied in the basis an explicit declaration of Christ's Headship over the Church and the Nation. It is proposed to be committed as a Church to Denominational Colleges for literary education, and deems one Theological Hall, each in Ontario, Quebec and the Lower Provinces ample for present necessities. There appeared to be no opposition of moment to these conclusions in the Presbytery.

MATTERS IN GENERAL.

Horrors of Religious Persecution.

At last the details of the last outbreak in Roumania have reached London. They show that the persecution of the unoffending Jews was truly heart rending. At Cahul the horrors exceeded even those formerly perpetrated at Ismail. Cahul is a town with a population of about 7000, 1000 of whom are Jews. These were suddenly set upon by their fellow townsmen, and for three days beaten, wounded, plundered, driven out of their houses, which were battered to ruins, and the tenants forced to take refuge in the barracks, where, instead of being defended, they were allowed again to be beaten, and for several days left without food. In these tumults heads were split open, arms broken, heads plucked off by the roots, and other atrocities committed. One of the sufferers defended his house for three days, his four sons standing by him. He made them swear that, should he fall, they would continue to fight. The hands surrounding his house were for a considerable time held at bay, but the defenders were at last compelled to give way, as the villains set fire to the premises. The damage inflicted on the Jews is valued at 40,000 dollars. Trustworthy accounts say that there is scarcely a village in the whole of Bessarabia in which there have not been frightful scenes. The misery is dreadful, and help is needed immediately.

Scotchmen in the Service of the Queen.

The London correspondent of the Dundee Advertiser writes—"John Brown is no doubt by far the most famous name of the day, but we may know what to expect. He should take the public into his confidence and tell them the cause of his inaction of last year, and say whether the Force is to be equally inactive this year. We indicate the evil; let the Chief tell us once for all whether or not there is a remedy, and whether that remedy will or will not be applied."

Original Poetry.

George Stewart, (Chemist) in advertising Cunningham's Cough Cure in the papers, expands his merits in nursery rhymes. This is worthy of the poet, but still more worthy of those who suffer from coughs, colds, weak lungs, &c.

To be known to the public as the elder. Although there are two candidates for the office of Mayor, the candidates' friends are not over-exacting themselves in canvassing. During the day we have been told that "Allison has been dropped" here at home; that "Allison is" "sure to win"; that "Allison will lead." "Allison will lead." "Allison will lead." "Allison will lead."

LOCALS.

The Election To-day passes off very quietly and agreeably. The candidates' friends are not over-exacting themselves in canvassing. Frighths and Shipments.

We take the following from Scammell Brother's circular of Saturday:—
West India Freight.—The scarcity of vessels and the anxiety on the part of shippers to obtain them, have caused a very great and sudden advance in the branch of Freight market, the result of which we now report, viz:—
C. Connors, 100; "Mary Given" 104; "Glendale" 453, choice of ports, 280; "Coram," a Bill to incorporate the Alexandria Hotel and Sea Bathing Company. Weddébourn presented a petition from the Mayor and Commonality of St. John praying that the Bill relating to Water Supply in Charlottetown may not become law. The Attorney General laid before the House the Report of the Superintendent of Education.

Academy of Music.

Since the passage of the Act through the Legislature in behalf of the Academy of Music, matters have been arranged between the Contractor and the Company. Work has been resumed, and probably by the first of May the building will be open to the public.

The Wesleyans.

had a good meeting last night in behalf of the Society of the Friends of the Education of the colored people. Rev. Mr. Daniel conducted the religious exercises. Rev. Mr. Pope submitted the report of the Educational Society, showing that $3,163 had been collected during the year. Prof. Innes moved, and Rev. D. D. Currie seconded the following resolution:—
That this meeting would gratefully recognize the services of the Rev. Mr. Daniel in his capacity of Chairman, and Rev. Mr. Daniel in his capacity of Secretary, and that the sum of $4 a year be voted to him for his services in this connection.

Bank of New Brunswick Vault.
The large iron casing to be used in the Bank of New Brunswick vault, is attracting attention from its dangerous position in front of the bank premises on Prince Wm. street. The props under one corner have fallen away by the ice melting under them, and at the same end under the other corner the prop is very slight. Somebody will be badly crushed if it comes down while any one is passing.
A New Brainerd Abroad.
The friends of Dr. J. W. Howe, recently of Chatham (son of Mr. D. P. Howe, senior), will be pleased to learn that he has just been appointed Professor of Surgery in the New York University.
The City Police Court.
This morning showed that the balm of spring had such an effect on the frolicsome citizens of various ages that they couldn't keep out of the jurisdiction of Judge Gilbert and his genial aid, Mr. Chandler.

OYSTERS! OYSTERS! OYSTERS!—If you want oysters, call at Geo. Sparrow's, King Street. By measure or any other way.

New Ministry Institution.

We are pleased to hear that there is in prospect of a new Society being established in our midst to be known as the "Investment Fund and Loan Association." The beneficiaries of the Association will be the poor of the city and Province. We understand those moving in this matter are only waiting to fix on a proper person to whom they can entrust the management of the new institution, which a programme will be published and a subscription list opened. In the meantime, the promoters invite attention to their Card, which will be found in this
