

ALL SOUTH WALES COAL TO BE PUBLICLY OWNED

British Government Takes Drastic Step to Conserve the Supply and Prevent Imminent Trade Disputes.

A despatch from London says: Under the defence of the realm act the Board of Trade announces that from December it will assume control of all the coal mines in South Wales. A committee has been appointed, representing the Board of Trade, the Home Office and the Admiralty, for the administration of the mines, and will meet to consider the question of wages.

There has been a long dispute concerning the demands of the South Wales coal miners for an increase of the war bonus. The Board of Trade attempted intervention to procure a settlement, but the mine-owners objected to an investigation of their affairs with a view to ascertaining whether they could justifiably meet the miners' demands.

The action of the Government in taking over control of the South Wales coal mines is an entirely new departure, and appears to have been caused by the imperative necessity of preventing a trade dispute from interfering with the coal supply. Earlier in the course of the war the Government had taken steps to control the price of coal to some extent, but from the beginning of the war there has been trouble in the South Wales coal field arising from the constant conflict between the coal miners and the owners on the question of wages. A year ago David Lloyd George, then Minister of Munitions, had to interfere and concede to the miners a fifteen per cent. bonus, despite the opposition of the owners. But with the continually rising cost of living the men contended that they were entitled to a further bonus, and that the great war profits the owners admittedly were making justified their demands. The owners especially objected to an audit on the ground that it was unprecedented and unreasonable.

The coal owners have been generally condemned by both press and public, and numerous conferences have been held by the Board of Trade with the object of finding an issue from the difficulty, but all to no purpose, owing to the owners' irreconcilable attitude.

SCIENCE TO AID IN DEVELOPMENT

Government Advisory Council on Technical Research.

A despatch from Ottawa says: After a year's consideration of the best method of Government procedure to encourage and assist in Canada manufacturing development based on scientific and technical research, the Minister of Trade and Commerce, Sir George E. Foster, has secured the appointment by the Government of an Honorary Advisory Council on Industrial and Scientific Research. The Council consists of University professors in the departments of applied science, and of men prominent in steel and engineering work.

The appointment of the Council is in line with action taken months ago by Great Britain and the United States when Governmental action was taken early in the war to secure the best expert advice, with a view to taking full advantage of the trade and manufacturing opportunities offered by the exclusion of Germany from the world's market. The object in view is to include technical and scientific research and utilize the results for the development of production and trade. It is hoped that the free assistance thus offered to industrial firms will enable Canada to keep abreast of the world's manufacturing readjustment during the war, and of the keen international competition which will follow it.

CUSTOMS REVENUE FOR PAST MONTH

A despatch from Ottawa says: The Customs revenue for the month just closing is the second best for the present fiscal year, amounting to $12,205,519.96, or close to the $13,000,000 high record of April. The total is $2,884,833.26 in excess of the record for November last year. For the eight months of the fiscal year the total Customs revenue has been $94,728,997.79, an increase of $32,440,348.78.

OVER 100,000 BELGIAN WORKMEN HAVE ALREADY BEEN DEPORTED

Are Being Starved in German Camp in Attempt to Make Them Sign Work Contracts.

A despatch from New York says: Pierre Mail, the Belgian Consul in New York, made public on Thursday night the following cable message received from Carton de Wiart, Belgian Minister of Justice, at Havre, France: "According to the last information received here more than 100,000 Belgian workmen have already been thrown out of their homes and taken into slavery in unknown places. The mothers, wives and children who want to retain them are driven back by the Germans and are torn with despair. The Belgian Government has just sent bread, through the Swiss Government, to 10,000 of these unfortunate actually kept together in Soltau Camp, and the Germans are breaking them with a starving system to try to get them to sign work contracts. What do the American people, whose Belgian relief work is put into serious danger, think about this?"

GERMANS SENTENCE CANADIANS TO 12 YEARS' IMPRISONMENT

A Number of Soldier-Prisoners Condemned, But Nature of Offence Not Known.

A despatch from Ottawa says: The British Government has learned through United States Ambassador at Berlin that a number of Canadian soldiers held in Germany as prisoners of war have been sentenced to twelve years' imprisonment. The nature of the offences for which these heavy sentences have been imposed is not known here.

The British Government has endeavored to induce the Berlin Government to allow British prisoners of war who are under sentence to receive parcels of food on promise of similar treatment to German prisoners in England, but so far these efforts have met with no success.
