

friends, in the building up a high reputation, in doing good service to the people, and in helping to make a history which will bear his name in honour and respect through future generations.

J. CASTELL HOPKINS.

Toronto, September 15th, 1892.

