

ORDERS

OF THE

COURT OF ERROR AND APPEAL.

PASSED 3RD JULY, 1850.

Whereas, by an act passed in the twelfth year of her Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to make further provision for the Administration of Justice, by the establishment of an additional Superior Court of Common Law, and also a Court of Error and Appeal in Upper Canada, and for other purposes," it was enacted, that a Court of Judicature should be established in that part of this Province called Upper Canada, to be styled "The Court of Error and Appeal," and to be composed of the judges of the Court of Queen's Bench, the Court of Common Pleas, and the Court of Chancery; and that it should be lawful for the said judges of the Court of Appeal, at any time within two years, to make all such general rules and orders as to them might seem expedient for the purpose of adapting the said Court of Appeal to the circumstances of this province, as well in regard to the writs of Error or other process by which Appeals should be commenced, and the form and mode of suing out such process as in respect of the practice and proceedings of the said court, and also to regulate the allowance and amount of costs, and from time to time to make other rules and orders, amending, altering, or rescinding the same: Provided always, that no such rules or orders should have the effect of altering the principles or rules of
