

BLACK BEARS OPEN SEASON

Wrestling is often a misunderstood sport. When most people think of wrestling, they think of the late night wrestling on television. In the AUSA there are ten weight divisions. In an open division there are twelve weight divisions. As the result of new ruling in wrestling, a wrestling match now lasts a maximum of five minutes. If one of the wrestlers is pinned to the mat before the five minutes expires, the match is over. In wrestling, offensive style of wrestling is emphasized.

In last week-end's wrestling matches, UNB made a good showing. Of the twelve wrestlers, three qualified in the top three, and one in the top five. Sean Dockrell made a second place performance in the 143 lb category. Todd Bursell also placed in the 143 lb category with third place. Dave Gallant placed second in the 119 lb category. Finishing fourth in the 177 lb was Ken Foley.

Coach Multamaki has a team this year consisting of twelve wrestlers. A three year veteran of UNB, the coach is pleased with the wrestling up to date. Last week-end the team wrestled very well. Team Captain Todd Bursell is off to a good start this season with a third place finish last week-end. Last week-end was a good experience for this young team and a learning one.

Coach Multamaki is fortunate to be working with a good club this year. It is a team full of rookies hoping to improve over the season. With only three or four veterans on the team, this should be an interesting season.

The team's objective for this season is to win the AUSA title. Coach Multamaki hopes, also, to be able to place some wrestlers in the CIAU's if they qualify. To reach these goals, the team practices every day. Between five to seven days a week, they practice two hours. Also, the guys on the team do their own conditioning, whether it be weight training, running, etc.

The next wrestling match isn't until January of 1989. The team will still practice and work on their wrestling however. Best of luck to the UNB Black Bears wrestling team!

BLAZERS FALTERING

by Ron Cameron

The UNB Red Blazers saw their record fall back below .500 last Sunday as they fell 3-2 to the Saint John Greyhounds.

The Blazers coming off 2 straight wins got on the scoreboard quickly in the game as Jennifer Reicker broke over the blueline and fired a wrist shot by Greyhound goalie Linda Vair. The goal was Reicker's sixth of the season. Saint John tied the game late in the first period, and went ahead on a power play goal early in the second period with UNB defender Jennifer Dey sitting off.

Late in the period the Red Blazers pulled even as a pair of rookies combined on a goal. Right-Wing Karen Whalen hit Center Tanya Foster with a pass as she broke into the slot and Foster slid her first goal of the season under Vair.

In the third period UNB had the better of the play but were unable to put the puck in the net. The decisive goal came as a former Red Blazer Barb Cox got behind the UNB defense and went in from center with a breakaway, beating goalie Carolyn LeBlanc with a deke.

With a minute to go UNB coach Mike Power pulled LeBlanc for a sixth attacker, but when they had their chances they could only get off weak harmless shots. The game went into the book as a 3-2 loss.

The Red Blazers will be on the road for a pair of games this weekend. Saturday the women travel to Orono to take on the University of Maine Lady Black Bears. The players are all up for this game, they know Maine has one of the best hockey programs in the U.S.. In fact their men's team beat the UNB men 12-0 recently at Orono. The Red Blazers would like to even things up with a win. Sunday the Blazers will again go to Saint John for a game with the Greyhounds.
