

Grooveyard Dance Slays The Kids

Last Friday, July 22, the A. A. Martin school was the scene of the Grooveyard, a Triple S dance.

Nearly 100 youngsters caught the big beat of the popular Charvells during the evening as the band, with their up-to-date arrangements kept everyone hopping.

Terrific decorations added to the groovy atmosphere such as a coffin, (occupied no less) bats and chains.

Kathy Irwin and Glen Branning, Vickie Cartwright and Ron McClintock and Sue Harding and Don Earl won the spot prizes.

No dance will be held this Friday because of the long week end, but dances will continue regularly after that.

At Elmerest School, a Sock Hop was held last Wednesday. It turned out to be a big success as close to 60 kids attended. All proceeds will be used for a trip to Terra Cotta this Wednesday.

Fore! Dick Van Dyke yells as he tees off in a roaring comedy Lt. Robin Crusoe, U.S.N. In the Walt Disney film, Dick recruits a chimp to act as his caddy. Nancy Kwan and Akim Tamiroff also star in the movie that will appear soon at the No. 5 Drive-In.

Come As You Are Dress At Teen Dance

"Come as you are" has proved a popular way to enjoy the regular Park Royal Teen Dance as 229 teenagers in slacks, shorts, jeans and what-have-you, danced to the music of the "Last Words," on Friday, July 22. The spoondances were won by: Debbie Torley and Dave Benish, Mary-Anne Connelly and Otto Cook, and Anne Whitnall and Bob Poulin.

This Friday, July 29, the popular "Last Words" will be back to complete their fourth week at the Park Royal Teen Dance. This group never fails to come up with an evening of terrific entertainment for the teenagers and there have been more than a few avid adult fans as well.

World Friendship Aim Of Rotarians

James B. Dods, Orangeville, governor of the Rotary district of the area, addressed the local Rotary club Monday, July 18, during his official visit. The local club is one of 52 Rotary clubs in this district.

Speaking of the global growth of Rotary, he said, "Rotary is the pioneer of the service clubs and today numbers more than 12,400 clubs with a combined membership of nearly 600,000 business and professional men. Spread throughout 133 countries in all parts of the world, Rotary clubs meet everyday of the week and conduct activities to improve their communities, aid youth, elevate business standards, and further international friendship and understanding."

The district governor also conferred with Dr. Ken Marland, local Rotary club president, and Bill McLarty, club secretary, on matters of club administration and plans for future service activities.

Referring to the program of Richard L. Evans of Salt Lake City, Utah, president of Rotary International for 1966-67, the Rotary governor said, "President Evans has urged Rotarians everywhere to be concerned with youth, employment and education, health, safety, and respect for law as a broad community-action program, and to acquire friendships and personal contacts in many parts of the world for the development of international points of view in general and the exchange of youth across national boundaries in particular."

During his visit the Rotary official was given additional information on some of the local Rotary club's activities, including the recent donation of canoes to the Mississauga Canoe Club, a car to the Victorian Order of Nurses and funds to the Sick Children's and South Peel hospitals.
