Debbie captures collegiate event

Pan American Games gold medallist pentathlete Debbie Van Kiekebelt recorded her first long jump triumph of the indoor track and field season last Saturday. The 19-year-old Clarkson

York University, leaped six metres (19 feet 7 inches) to Ontario capture the Universities Athletic Association (OUAA) championship crown

Debbie was the most successful but not the only Mississauga athlete in the spotlight of the OUAA meet. Freshmen Bob deGroot.

Applewood Secondary School's most valuable athlete last year, turned in a notable 5.7-second effort to finish a close second in the Thursday affair. Tobias had tackled Large from behind for no apparent reason. Bruce Allworth and Paul his place. Bunner each collected two in at ga and Bryan Ross Schnieder and Dave Kaszycki had singles.

It was Malton-29 against Malton-32 in Mississauga Hockey League minor bantam red action last week. Much to the delight of "caught-in-the-middle" fans both teams gained a point in the standings as both clubs were rather reluctant to score against each other.

As a result, Chris Jones got the shutout for Malton-29 while Joey Ashmall was unbestable for Malton-32. RED
