within, and he states that he has been placed in the humiliating position from the delay of having to apologise to Mr. Bell for the non-arrival of the money after getting his receipt to vouchers. Mr. Bell also states that he is certainly entitled to the courtesy of a reply to letters addressed to the Dept. at Victoria

I have written to Mr. Phillips informing him of the date on which cheques were sent from here to you, and that with regard to the letters which he complains
